LONDON, May 29.

MR. Parish, now in London, of the eminent house of Parish at Hamburgh, yesterday received letters, officially, from the Senate of that city, brought by the Mail of the preceding night, stating, that the Commander in Chief of the Danish troops in Hamburgh, the Prince of Hesse, wrote on the 22d a letter, informing the Senate, he would withdraw the whole of his forces from the territory of that city on the succeeding day, the 23d. The Prince of Hesse thanked the Senate for the kind treatment of his men, adding, he would deliver up the keys of the city early in the morning. This agreeable step was produced by the interference of Lord Hel. Helen's, who waited on Count Bernstorff at Copenhagen for the express purpose. It is an event auspicious of his Lordship's mission; and we are happy to perceive that the general complexion of affairs in the North is of a favourable nature. Although Prussia betrays no inclination to evacuate Hanover, yet we discover in her conduct a disposition to halt in her hostility.—The letters to the mail repeat the rumours of a misunderstanding between the Courts of Berlin and Paris, and it is not to be supposed, that reports so universally circulated are without foundation. Government are said to have received certain advice of the enemy's intention to send immediately a very formidable force against Ireland. The fleet in Brest harbour is certainly ready for sea; and that in the Texel, it is reported, is intended to co-operate in the enterprize, by attacking the island in the North, while the French forces attempt a landing in the South. A small vessel has lately been seized in the act of making soundings on the southern coast. The Channel Fleet, which was expected to return to port, continues to cruise off Brest, in consequence of some intelligence recently received by the Commander in Chief.

The report of the landing of a British force from India at Suez, gains additional credit daily; though nothing official has yet appeared on the subject. General Hutchinson, it is added, has sent a detachment of his army up the country, to effect a junction with those troops, who are under the orders of General Baird. Some accounts affect, that the naval force which covered the landing of the Indian army was under the orders of Sir Home Popham. This, however, does not seem likely to have been the case, as that officer remained at the Cape of Good Hope, at the date of the last advices from thence.

The last Hamburgh Mail repeats the report that a French squadron, (supposed to be Ganthebaume's) was seen off Leghorn on the first inst. Sir J. B. Warren was hourly expected in that neighbourhood.

The Neapolitan Navy, which has been seized by the French, is to be fitted out for the purpose of conveying troops to the relief of Egypt.

The affair of the indemnities occupies every person's mind in Germany; and from the preparations that are making, it is apprehended that the subject will not be amicably adjusted. The interests of two of the great military powers upon the Continent are in direct opposition to the interests of the other two powers. It is known that Austria and France are determined to establish the late Grand Duke of Tuscany in Germany; and it is believed that Russia and Prussia will oppose such a project—at any rate they will certainly take the part of those German Princes who have been such considerable losers in territory and revenue.

In consequence of the past and further call for the services of the Royal artillery, his Majesty has been pleased to order an augmentation to the same, consisting of one Colonel, two Lieutenant-Colonels, one Major, and seven companies consisting of 100 gunners each, with a due proportion of officers, &c.

On Wednesday, in the House of Commons, the Attorney General, in pursuance of the notice he had given on a former night, and agreeably to a suggestion made in the Report of the Secret Committee, moved for leave to bring in a Bill for indemnifying all persons who were concerned in the arrest and imprisonment of persons upon charges of treasonable practices in this country since the 1st of April 1793. After some opposition from Messrs. Grey, Tierney, &c. leave was granted to bring in the bill.

On Thursday laft an inquisition was taken at Stanton Saint John, in this county, before Mr. Buckland, one of his Majesty's Coroners, on view of the body of William Blackman, who on the same day was found dead in a field in the said parish. It being proved that the deceased was very subject to fits, the Jurors' verdict was, that he was seized with one on the above day, and died in consequence thereof.

A Common Hall of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Inhabitants of Worcester, was holden at the Guildhall on Monday laft, for the purpose of considering the propriety of petitioning Parliament to regulate the sale of all kinds of grain, as well as potatoes and turnips, by one fixed weight only; which was unanimously and very respectably attended. The Mayor opened the business by reading the requisition for calling the meeting; and Mr. Martin Barr then submitted to the consideration of the meeting the draught of a petition to the House of Commons for the above purpose, which being read, was, after some observations as to the beneficial tendency of the measure, unanimously agreed to, and ordered to be immediately engrossed and left at the Guildhall for signatures until two o'clock this day. A Committee was then appointed to further the important object of the meeting; and after passing a vote of thanks to the Mayor, and also to the gentlemen at whose request the Common Hall was called, the meeting was dissolved.—The petition, with several hundred names signed thereto, was transmitted to the representatives of Worcester, to be presented to the House of Commons.

Numerous parties of distinction have already arrived at Cheltenham, and that celebrated Spa promises to be more brilliantly attended this season than at any former period.
