LONDON, July 13.

The public will see with pleasure, that the King continues to hold levees at the Queen's House. At the levee yesterday the Marquis of Hertford kissed hands on being appointed Master of the Horse, one of the most dignified offices about the King's person. Lord J. Thynne also kissed hands on being appointed Vice-Chamberlain to the King, and Mr. Gibbs on succeeding Mr. Mansfield as Chief Justice of Chester.

All idea of his Majesty's jaunt to Weymouth is dropt. It is his determination to continue at Kew for the Summer, and, it is now believed, there will be no contest at Brentford to disturb his quiet.—Morning Chronicle.

Some reports of a pacific nature prevailed yesterday in the City; but, notwithstanding the industry with which they were circulated, they failed to produce the effect for which they were evidently designed. The Stocks scarce varied a shade on the occasion.

The Parliament is expected to rise this day sennight.

We are sorry to learn, by accounts from Dublin, that symptoms of disturbance are again discovered in Ireland. Some days ago we heard that midnight meetings had been held in the county of Kildare; and that apprehensions were entertained. By the mails which arrived from Dublin this morning these fears are in some degree confirmed. The Freeman's Journal says, several foreigners have been lately observed in this country, who are suspected to be Spies.—Search is making after some;—one was very nearly apprehended a few days ago, near Maryborough. The same paper continues to assert that "certain confined miscreants" are adopting a lofty tone, & privately circulating printed papers of an inflammatory kind. The steps which have been recently taken by Government, and the vigilance now exercised, it is added, shew that it is not a mistake to suppose that the flame of treason is rekindling.

We are concerned to state the capture of the extra ship Admiral Aplin, Captain Rogers, 558 tons, destined to Madras and Bengal; she failed in August last, and is taken into the isle of France, she had 11,000 ounces of treasure on board, on account of individuals—the Company's loss is but trifling.

The trade out of Rotterdam is totally at a stand, and the Dutch openly express their detestation of the French, and their regret that they did not give more effectual assistance to the English last war, in the attempt to rescue Holland from the tyranny of France.

A letter from Calcutta states, that immense quantities of grain were lately destroyed by fire in the Black Town; but the apprehensions of a scarcity in consequence had been removed, by the harvest in the upper provinces being more abundant than was ever before remembered.

Yesterday the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Aldermen, and the Recorder, &c. attended at Guildhall, for the choice of two gentlemen to serve the office of Sheriffs for the year ensuing, when Thomas Parry, Esq. Citizen and Girdler, and George Scholey, Esq. Citizen and Distiller, were declared duly elected.

Yesterday a Court of Directors was held at the East India House, when the following alterations were made in the destination of the undermentioned extra ships, viz.

Moreau is allowed to take all his property with him to America; and it is even said he is to have a pension. He declined the Office of Governor of the isle of France, as he declared he would never acknowledge Bunaparte as Emperor, to serve under him as such. Moreau's brother, and Generals Souham, Macdonald, and Lecourbe, have determined to settle in the United States of America.

Yesterday evening, at the house of Lady Perth, was married, by special licence, the Right Hon. Earl Moira to the Countess of London. The ceremony was performed by the Right Hon. and Rev. Beilby Porteus, Lord Bishop of London. His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales gave the bride's hand, and the nuptials were attended by a brilliant circle of the nobility, their friends.

About eleven o'clock last night an alarming conflagration occurred at Grant's Cooperage, Grange Yard, Whitechapel, which was entirely consumed. The flames spread to a sugar house adjoining, but the dampness of the materials, owing to the incessant rain of the preceding day, aided by a plentiful supply of water, and the laudable activity of the firemen, prevented their sustaining much damage; and at one o'clock the flames were so far subdued as to preclude the idea of further mischief.

The Rev. Richard Hawkin Hitchins, D.D. Fellow of Exeter College, has been preferred, by the Rector and Fellows of that Society, to the Rectory of Bayerthe, in the county of Wilts, and Diocese of Salisbury, void by the death of the Rev. Emanuel May, B.D.

The Aylesbury Election, which is severely contested, commenced yesterday morning; at four o'clock in the afternoon the numbers were nearly equal, when about half the constituents had polled.

We have great pleasure in stating that there was only one prisoner for trial at our County Sessions last Tuesday, and that was James Eggleston, who was convicted of stealing some willow poles, the property of William Soden, of Middle Barton, and sentenced to be imprisoned one month. The trials of appeals and traverses were postponed until the next Michaelmas Sessions, owing to the absence of counsel at the Berks Assizes.—At our City Sessions on Thursday there was not a single prisoner for trial, on any other business that required the attendance of the Recorder.

At our Assizes, which ended yesterday, Richard Grisdyon, for stealing four pieces of home-spun linen sheeting from the premisses of Mr. William Greening, of Littlemore, was sentenced to pay a fine of one shilling and to be confined in the House of Correction for six months.

At Abingdon Assizes the trial of Mary Greener, for the murder of her female bastard child, was put off on account of the absence of a material witness;—John Hassel, charged with stealing from the person of Rd. White, a Corporal of Marines, on the King's highway, a leather pocket-book, containing various bank-notes and some silver, was acquitted of the highway robbery, but found guilty of grand larceny, and sentenced to be transported for seven years;—Robert Andrews, for stealing about a gallon of oats out of the stable of Mr. Thomas Rudland, of Maidenhead, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

Married, a few days ago, Mr. John Cory, of Shottery, in the county of Warwick, to Miss Court, of the same place.

By the New Stamp Act, an additional duty of 3l. per ann. is laid on Certificates to be taken out by attornies practising in the country; and a new duty of 6l. per ann. is laid on every person residing without the limits of the two-penny post, not being an attorney or solicitor, who on his own account, and for his own profit, shall draw any conveyance or deed relating to any real or personal estate.

At Shrewsbury fair, on Tuesday, cattle, sheep, and pigs went off at little variation in price from last fair. The sheep of horses was not large, and good ones fetched high prices Wool from 16s. 21s. to 27s. per stone. Cheese from 65s. to 72s. per cwt.

At Cirecester fair, on Thursday, for fat cattle there was a ready sale; but lean stock were not in much request. Sheep met with some advance in price; and pigs sold extremely low. There were few good horses.

Saturday last 48 pockets of hops were weighed in Worcester Market—Curr. prices 4l. 6s. to 4l. 14s. per cwt.

MARRIED.—Mr. Henry Wood, jun. of Leicester, to Miss Haughton, of Bewdley.—At Saint James's Church, William Head, Esq. of Milton, in the county of Bucks, to Miss Stanley, of Cottingham, in the county of Northampton.—At Wells, the Rev. Richard Whalley, of Henbridge, to Miss Tudway, daughter of Clement Tudway, Esq. M. P. for Wells.—At Chapelen-la-frith, Derbyshire, the Rev. Thomas Pindar, of Congleton, to Miss Sarah Yates, of Castle Naze.—At St. Paul's, Covent Garden, Mr. Jones, of Covent Garden, Solicitor, to Miss Whitehead, of the Isle of Wight.
