POSTSCRIPT.

LONDON, JAN. 28.

It is said to be in contemplation to call a General Meeting of the Heads of the different Public Establishments which the Duke of Kent particularly patronized, for the purpose of testifying, by some mark of peculiar distinction, their deep regret at the loss of their illustrious benefactor. A more eloquent tribute could not be offered to his memory than is contained in the simple enumeration of the titles of the institutions over which he presided —His Highness was—

Joint President of the Society for Propagating Christian Knowledge in the Highlands and Islands, and among the Indians in America.

Patron of the African and Asiatic Society for the Relief and Instruction of the Natives of Africa and Asia, resident in London and its Vicinity.

Vice-Patron of the Royal Westminster Infirmary.

President of the Lying-in Charity.

Patron of the Royal British Free School, Islington.

Patron of the Eastern Dispensary.

Vice-Patron of the City Dispensary.

Patron of the City of London Truss Society.

Patron of the Universal Dispensary for Children.

Patron of the St. Anne's Society Schools.

President of the Corporation of the Caledonian Asylum

Patron of the Benevolent Society of St. Patrick.

Patron of the Society for the Relief of Widows and Orphans of Medical Men

Vice-President of the Veterinary College.

Patron of the Philosophical Society of London.

Advices have been received in town direct from Buenos Ayres to the 12th October. No disconsolation had at that period been entered into with Artigas, and as he made it an absolute condition, that Buenos Ayres should join him in a war against the Portugese, there was little chance of a good understanding. By intelligence from Santiago it was ascertained that Lord Cochrane's squadron sailed from Valparaiso on the 11th September; it consisted of the following ships:—

O'Higgins (Lord Cochrane)	50 Guns
San Martin	64
Lautaro	42
Independencia	32
Chacabuco	20
Galvarino	18
Arancano	14
Puey rredon	10

And the Montezuma, with two fire-ships.

The object of the squadron is to burn the Spanish vessels in Callao. They had on board 420 Congreve rockets, and, besides many foreign officers, about 450 troops drawn from several corps of the army. They had orders also to bear up for Coquimbo, to take on board 300 additional troops. An embargo was laid at Valparaiso on the 11th of August, and still continued. No tidings had been received concerning the ships of war that sailed from Cadiz for Lima.

We understand that the Lords of the Treasury have given directions to allow Mechanics, Artisans, &c. to emigrate from Great Britain to any country, and in any ship. The law formerly prevented tradesmen from leaving the kingdom.

The Papers received yesterday from Ireland, come down to the 25th inst. Burglaries and stealing of arms are common in that country; but it does not appear that hostility to Government is associated with these offences. Private letters agree in attaching the same character to these unfortunately prevalent crimes.

Monday the High Court of Justiciary met, to proceed to the trial of Walter Baillie and Janet Simpson, his wife, residing in the Grass-market, Edinburgh, accused of sedition, in having sold or circulated Wooler's Black Dwarf, &c. Walter Baillie did not appear, and sentence of outlawry was pronounced against him. Mrs. Baillie appeared, but the Lord Advocate moved that the diet against her be deferred pro loco et tempore, which was done accordingly.

Fire.—Yesterday morning, soon after five o'clock, a fire broke out in the dwelling house of Mr. Fowler, well known by the name of China Hall, on the Lower Deptford Road, which in a short time communicated to his extensive Silk Mills, the whole of which, with a large quantity of silk, were totally consumed. Happily no lives were lost.

Pugilism.—An off-hand match was fought yesterday morning at Barming Green, eight miles from Welwyn, Herts, between Harry Plank, a man of some skill in this fashionable art, and George Ford, a Leicestershire man, of athletic powers. The match was for 40 guineas a side, and the backers were Capt. Hands for Plank, and Ford was backed by subscription. Walton, the cricketer, seconded Ford, and William Jones officiated for Plank.—Seventeen gallant rounds were fought in 42 minutes.—The fight was won by Plank.

LENT ASSIZES.

Oxford—Mr. Justice Bayley, Mr. Justice Richardson.
Norfolk—Lord Chief Justice Abbott, Mr. Baron Graham.
Midland—Lord Chief Justice Dallas, Mr. Justice Best.
Home—Lord Chief Baron Richards, Mr. Baron Garrow.
Western—Mr. Baron Wood, Mr. Justice Burrough.
Northern—Mr. Justice Bayley, Mr. Justice Park.

Mr. Justice Bayley and Mr. Justice Park will proceed to the whole of the Northern Counties, the same as on the Summer Circuit, for the despatch of business.

COURT OF KING'S BENCH, JAN. 26.

MANCHESTER MAGISTRATES.—The King v. John A. Borron, Esq.—It will be recollected, that this was an application made during the last Term, for a criminal information to be filed against the defendant, a Magistrate for the County of Lancaster, and residing at Warrington, for refusing to take the information of two persons, Richardson and another, who applied to him with a charge of felony, they having been assaulted and wounded by the military on the 16th of August last at Manchester. The Rule had been obtained on the affidavit of Charles Pearson, solicitor, who deposed to the fact of the application by these individuals, and the refusal of the Magistrate to take their depositions, on the ground that he had no jurisdiction in the matter, Manchester not being in his district.

The Chief Justice, who commenced his observations by some severe strictures on the conduct of Mr. Pearson, said this was the first time the Court had heard of an Attorney applying against a Magistrate for not interfering in a charge of alleged felony, committed out of the district in which he acted, adding that Mr. Pearson's conduct on that occasion, insisting on his right to comment on the evidence, was highly improper and reprehensible. His Lordship added, that no attorney had a right to do so in law, because when Gentlemen of the profession attended Magistrates on such occasions, and examined witnesses, it was a matter of courtesy, and not of right; and though they might give their advice, if asked for it, they were not authorised impertinently to interfere with the jurisdiction of a magistrate. Upon a review of all the circumstances of the case, the Court could not but consider this as Mr. Pearson's application, and as his rule, and in discharging it they felt quite bound to order that person to pay the costs. Rule discharged with costs.

CORN EXCHANGE, Wednesday, Jan. 26.

A considerable quantity of Wheat from Essex, Kent and Suffolk remained over from Monday's market, for which we had but few buyers this morning; yet what few runs from the above counties were disposed of, were at Monday's prices. Fine Barley fully supports its price, having had a small quantity of that description at market; but the inferior qualities were dull sale, and can only be got off in small quantities to Corn-chandlers.—Beans, Peas, and Oats, met heavy sale, but are not cheaper.

CITY AND COUNTY INTELLIGENCE.

On Tuesday last was married, Mr. John Hales, of Cassington, in this county, to Ann, eldest daughter of Mr. William Kirry, of Wytham, Berks.

On Wednesday the 12th inst. was married, Mr. Blackwell, of High Wycombe, to Mary, eldest daughter of Mr John Jennett, of Thame, in this county.

Thursday was married, at St. Michael's Church, Mr. Samuel Brooks, farrier, of Cheltenham, to Miss Elizabeth Lay, of this city.

Early on Monday morning last died, at Purton House, Wilts, to the inexpressible grief of his family and friends, after a short but severe illness, Robert Wilsoun, Esq. one of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for that county.

Yesterday died, aged 79, John Winchester, 43 years a driver of chaises at the Star Inn, in this city.

We are happy to hear that a Meeting of the Committee for rebuilding of Carfax Church will take place on Wednesday next; and we hope and trust that it will be fully attended, in order that measures may immediately be adopted for carrying into effect this most desirable object.

The Frost having broken up, the Committee entrusted with the management of the Fund for the relief of the industrious Poor out of employ, entertain hopes that in a few days, a great number of the labourers will be able to return to their accustomed employments. Amongst the first, it may be presumed, will be the boatmen, gardeners, masons, and persons usually working in stables: the whole of this description must have found great relief in the subscription; and we think we do not presume too much when we express our confident opinion, that by the timely assistance held out, not only have extreme misery and suffering been prevented, but those petty thefts also which frequently occur at this season of the year. The Committee will continue cheerfully, diligently, and conscientiously to discharge, to the best of their power, the laborious and difficult duties which have been committed to their charge.

On Sunday afternoon last, as some boys were sliding on the river Ock, between Garford and Fyfield, they discovered in a field belonging to Mr. Kimber, of Fyfield Wick Farm, a man lying on his face and completely frozen to death. An alarm being given and the body removed, it was ascertained to be that of a labouring man named Spendlove, of Hanney, who had left his home on Thursday to go to Witney, and on his return was supposed to have lost his way and perished through the inclemency of the weather. He was seen late in the evening of that day at Kingston Inn, on his way home.

On Saturday last an Inquest was taken at the Radcliffe Infirmary, by Mr. Cecil, Coroner, on view of the body of Edward Robinson, aged 5 years, whose clothes took fire in the absence of his mother, and he was so much burnt as to occasion his death.—Verdict accordingly.—And on Tuesday last another inquest was taken at Woolvercot, by the same Coroner, on view of the body of Thomas Sillman, an infant, whose death was supposed to have been occasioned by a piece of meat having stuck in its throat; but the medical gentleman who examined the infant after its death, was of opinion that he had died in convulsions.—Verdict—Died by the Visitation of God.

John Lindsey, William Viner, John Faulkner, Timothy Slingo, John Webb, and James Cook, charged on the confession of John Lindsey, with having stolen sheep from the following persons, viz. 3 from Mr. Bowerman, of Eusham; one from Mr. Robert Callcutt; 2 from Mrs. Castle, of Wilcott; 2 from the Earl of Macclesfield; 2 sheep and a lamb from Mr. Loutchbery, of Wilcott; 3 from Mr. Tidmarsh, of Fawler; one from Mr. Willsden, of Handborough; one from Mary Turner, of Hailey; one from Mr. Smith, of Easham; and one from Mr. Wiggons, of Northleigh; likewise several stocks of bees, a quantity of bacon, wheat, beans, &c the property of various other persons in the neighbourhood of Witney; were committed to our County Gaol.—William Sinyler, has also been committed, charged with feloniously killing a fallow deer, in the forest of Whichwood; this is his second offence.

At Uxbridge Market on Thursday last, Wheat sold from 13l. 0s. to 13l. 0s.—New ditto 00l. 00s. to 00l. 00s. per load.—Barley 32s. to 29s.—Oats 24s. to 23s.—Beans 39s. to 43s.—Peas 42s. to 52s.—Rye 00s. to 00s.

To the EDITOR of the OXFORD HERALD.

SIR, I shall be obliged if one of your philosophical readers will inform me, through the medium of your Paper, whence is the derivation of the word Zero?
