To the Governors of the Radcliffe Infirmary,

MY LORDS, LADIES, AND GENTLEMEN,

I Take the earliest opportunity of returning you my most unfeigned thanks for the honour you have conferred on me in electing me Secretary to your Infirmary, and humbly beg leave to assure you, that I will not only use my best endeavours to secure and promote the welfare of your noble and humane institution, but shall ever feel the liveliest interest towards that object so much and so kindly cherished by you.

I have the honour to be,
My Lords, Ladies, and Gentlemen,
Your most obedient and humble servant,
T. TRASH, Jun.

POSTSCRIPT.

LONDON, OCT. 25.

Yesterday a Court of Directors was held at the East India House, when the Right Hon. Earl Amherst was appointed Governor General of India.

The dispatch of the Portuguese Ambassador was received by him yesterday. The seal had evidently been broken, and it is said part of the contents has been taken out by the French Government. Mr. Bowring is still in prison, and is not even allowed to communicate with any legal adviser, though he has received notice of trial.

Sir Robert Wilson landed at Dover on Wednesday, and is expected in town this day. He is accompanied by Lady Wilson.

Bayonne Papers to the 15th instant arrived this morning. They state that the Royalists have been defeated in a series of actions, commencing on the 4th and ending on the 8th, and that the Constitutionalists are masters of the northern provinces of Spain. The report of a victory gained by Mina on the 3d, near Berga, is contradicted. He had not reached that position on that day.

For some days past the Dublin Papers have been tolerably free from accounts of outrages in the south. The favourable hopes thence conceived have, however, been of short duration. The Papers which arrived this day announce the destruction of considerable property, principally corn belonging to clergymen, which has been maliciously set on fire and consumed.

Return of the Arctic Land Expedition.—The late accounts of this expedition which reached Great Britain through Montreal, prepared us, in some degree, to expect its return by the annual Hudson's Bay fleet. On Friday last 12th instant, Captain Franklin, Dr. Richardson, and other Officers of the land expedition, arrived in Edinburgh, having posted from the north, where they were landed from the Hudson's Bay ships. They arrived on Lord Melville, the great promoter of this and all the other remarkable British geographical expeditions at present on foot in different parts of the world; and, before leaving Edinburgh, which was the evening of the day of their arrival, visited, along with the Professor of Natural History, our splendid Museum. Their discoveries, we understand, will entirely alter our present views of the geography of the northern regions of North America. We are also informed that the Gentlemen of the expedition, one of whom, Dr. Richardson, is a native of this city, are of opinion that Captain Parry will, in all probability, be able to double Ice Cape, and reach the South Sea.—Edinburgh Observer.

Rev. Richard Harvey, Fellow of St. John's college.

BACHELORS OF ARTS.

Hon. Philip Henry Abbot, Student of Christ Church, and Vinerian Scholar.
Robert Wrottesley, Christ Church.
William Henry Butler, Christ Church.

On Thursday last Charles Bridle Daubeny, Doctor in Medicine, and Fellow of Magdalen college, was unanimously elected, in Convocation, Professor of Chemistry, on the Foundation of Dr. George Aldrich, in the room of Dr. Kidd, who had resigned that Professorship, and is now Regius Professor of Medicine.

Yesterday the Rev. Chas. John Ridley, Master of Arts, and Fellow of University college, was unanimously elected Anglo-Saxon Professor, on the Foundation of Dr. Richard Rawlinson, in the room of the Rev. Dr. Silver, whose term of holding the Professorship had expired.

ECCLESIASTICAL PREFERMENTS.

The Rev. Henry Riddell Moody, M.A. of Oriel college, Oxford, has been collated by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury to the Rectory of Chatham, in the county of Kent.

The Rev. William Cockburn, Clerk, M. A. (brother in law, it is said, to Mr. Peel,) to be Dean of the Metropolitical Church of York, void by the death of Dr. George Markham; patron, the King.

The Rev. J. Moore to the Vicarage of Otterton, Devonshire.

The Rev. R. Tredcroft, A. M. Rector of Combes, to the Prebend of Hampstead, in Winchester Cathedral, vacant by the resignation of the Rev. W. Kinlesides.

The Rev. G. H. L. Gretton, M. A. to the Livings of Allensmore and Clehonger, vacant by the resignation of the Rev. Robert Pearce; patron, the Very Rev. the Dean of Hereford.

The Rev. Mr. Curtis, Vicar of Leominster, has been presented by the Bishop of London to the Rectory of Sudbury, Suffolk.

The Rev. Edmund Southcomb to the Rectory of Rose Ash, Devon.

PREACHERS.

Rev. the Provost of Oriel college, on Sunday morning, at St. Mary's.
Rev. Mr. Symons, of Wadham, in the afternoon.
Rev. Mr. Watts, of University, St. Simon & St. Jude.
Rev. Mr. Hughes, of Trinity, All Saints' Day.

LECTURER AT CARFAX.—Rev. Mr. Firth.

Tuesday last was married, at Trinity church, in Liverpool, by the Rev. Dr. Dean, Principal of St. Mary Hall, Oxford, the Rev. T. Clayton, Rector of Cottingham, Northamptonshire, to Mary, youngest daughter of the late Rev. George Hodson, Rector of Liverpool, and sister to the late Frodsham Hodson, D. D. Principal of Brasenose college, and Regius Professor of Divinity, in this University.

From the great enquiries made respecting the Musical Festival on Wednesday and Thursday next, we anticipate a full attendance. Braham was always a decided favourite with the Oxonians, and we learn he intends singing his most approved airs. The vocal abilities of Miss Goodall, Miss Carew, and Mr. Nelson, are likewise too well known to need any eulogium. We are pleased to see that Mr. Harper, the inimitable player on the trumpet, is also engaged.

BIRTH.—On Wednesday last, at the house of William Rickford, Esq. M. P. for Aylesbury, in Great George-street, Westminster, the Lady of Astley P. Cooper, Esq. of a daughter.

On Tuesday last was married, at St. Peter's-in-the-East, by the Rev. William Jacobs, of New college, Charles, eldest son of Mr. Tomes, late of this city, attorney, to Caroline Elizabeth Stanton, eldest daughter of Mr. James, of this city.

Same day was married, at Wootten, Berks, Mr. William Edgington to Miss Mary Mott, both of that village.

On Saturday last died, at Cheltenham, the Rev. William Shippen Willes, of Astrop House, Northamptonshire, Prebendary of York, and Rector of Preston Bissett. He was third son of the late Mr. Justice Willes.

On Thursday last died, at Shirburn Lodge, aged 10 years, Frances Caroline, third daughter of John Fane, jun. Esq.

On Monday last died, at Dorchester, in this county, in the 65th year of his age, Mr. William Cox; of whom it may be truly said, his amiable manners and upright conduct had so endeared him to his family and friends as to cause his death to be by them most deeply lamented, while his memory will be cherished to the latest period.

On Thursday last died, after enduring most acute pain and misery, with exemplary fortitude, Miss S. Wise, daughter of Mr. Wise, hair-dresser, of this city, who was so dreadfully burnt on the 12th inst. by her clothes taking fire, as mentioned in our last Journal.

On Sunday last died, aged 62, much regretted, Mrs. Padbury, wife of Mr. Padbury, Magdalen parish, in this city.

On the 15th inst. died, at Witney, Mary Ann, youngest daughter of Mr. Thomas Skinner, of that place.

Died, on the 21th of August, 1815, at Seroor, in the East Indies, Henry Arrow, formerly a shoemaker of this city; which intelligence was received by his relatives only a few days since.

A General Meeting of the Governors of the Radcliffe Infirmary was held on Wednesday last, when Mr. Samuel Trash, jun. was elected Secretary, in the room of Mr. Whiting.

A violent hurricane was experienced in this neighbourhood on Saturday last. It had rained most of the morning, and about twelve the wind, which blew from the south-west, suddenly increased to a violent degree, and was accompanied by thunder, lightning, and hail. In the vicinity of Cowley, Horspath, and the villages adjacent several houses were unroofed, barns blown down, and the branches of trees strewed over the fields. As Mr. Cox, of Dorchester, was coming to Oxford market, his gig was blown completely over; luckily, however, the horse was very quiet, and Mr. Cox received no injury. The horses of the Aurora Post Coach, near Stokenchurch, were so frightened by the lightning, that they turned completely round and overturned the coach; we are happy, however, to hear that none of the passengers sustained any material injury. The storm appeared to be circumscribed, not extending to any great width, but carried all before it within its track.

The shop of Mr. Green, watchmaker, of St. Aldate's, was in the night of Tuesday last robbed of four watches by some villain who contrived to get down one of the window shutters, and take from the window five watches. It is supposed the thief was alarmed by the man employed to extinguish the gas lamps in the morning, who first discovered the robbery; one of the watches was afterwards found in the street near the spot.

On Thursday se'nnight an inquest was taken at Abingdon, before Mr. Cole, coroner of the borough, on the body of James Grace, servant to Mrs. Keen, baker, in Stert-street.—Verdict, "Found hanging, and that he hung himself while in a deranged state of mind."

An inquisition was taken on the 18th instant, by adjournment, at Wigginton, by R. D. Gough, Gent. one of the coroners for this county, on view of the body of Matthias Lamley, who was killed while fighting with William Cox. Verdict, manslaughter. The coroner immediately issued his warrant for the apprehension of Cox.

ADVERTISEMENT.—We are desired to state that the BRIGHTON COACH leaves the Angel Inn, Oxford, every Monday, Wednesday, and Friday Mornings, at Seven o'clock, through Reading, and returns the following days, at the same hour.

On Saturday last John Brain, of Dorchester, was convicted in a penalty of five pounds, for refusing to pay the toll at Dorchester toll gate, and assaulting the collector.

At the Reading Quarter Sessions, the Magistrates, having taken into consideration the depressed state of the agricultural interest, came to a resolution to lessen the county rate, by reducing as much as possible the amount of expences usually allowed to prosecutors.

At the Aylesbury Session, on the motion of the Duke of Buckingham, a Committee was appointed to examine into the county expenditure, and report if any diminution can be made in the same. His Grace, on moving the resolutions for a Committee, said notice of a motion on this subject had been given by a young gentleman (Mr. Smith), whom he would with pleasure call his Honourable Friend, if he would allow him so to do, but he much feared that difference of political opinion seemed rather to have excited private animosity against him. But he hoped that (Mr. S.) that he (the Noble Duke) had always felt a great regard for him, and did not conceive that he owed him any apology for taking his motion out of his hands, as it would perhaps come with more force and authority from the Lord Lieutenant. He wished, also, to state, that he proposed this question with no idea that there existed any abuse in the expenditure of the county money; but he thought that the same principle ought to govern the administration of public money as the exigencies of the times prescribed in private establishments, namely, an endeavour to save. Mr. Smith, who seconded the resolutions, assured the Noble Duke, that no apology was at all necessary for his having taken the motion out of his hands; he could not, after what had fallen from the Noble Duke, refrain from adding, that the Noble Duke judged very erroneously of him, if he thought that a difference in politics could even for a moment create any thing like bitterness of private feeling. He could assure him that, although upon public matters it was impossible for one man to be in entire accordance with another than he was with the Noble Duke, still he had never forgotten the courtesies he had received at the hands of the Noble Duke. Private animosity was the last feeling to mingle in his discharge of his public duty. It appears that the expenditure of the county of Buckingham last year was less by 3558*l.* 6*s.* 8*d.* than that of the year preceding.

Caution to Publicans.—On Tuesday, at the county Public Office, Palace Yard, Worcester, Thos. Green, of Upton Snodsbury, Publican, was convicted in the mitigated penalty of 19*s.* and 5*l.* costs, for selling wine, in a measure not made of pewter, contrary to the provisions of the new Public-House Licence Bill.

Hereford Michaelmas Fair, on Monday, exhibited an unusually large and remarkably fine show of cattle. The hays were dull, and at prices ruinously low, in most instances five or six pounds in twenty less than at last October fair. Fine oxen went at 2¼*d.* per lb. fat cattle similarly, lean beasts were in no request; sheep and pigs were brought in abundance, but could not be disposed of without great loss. The number of horses was large, and a few fine animals and road sters went off tolerably well; agricultural horses very low. Salt butter was in great demand, at from 9*s.* to 10*s.* per stone of 12lbs.; best making cheese, from 50*s.* to 56*s.*, and two-month from 40*s.* to 45*s.* Onions were very dear, and sold as high as from 2*s.* 6*d.* to 3*s.* per peck.

Worcester, Oct. 19.—At our market, this day, 877 pockets of new hops and 12 of old were weighed; prices of inferior hops rather lower, from 40*s* to 50*s.* but fine samples fully support last week's prices from 58*s.* to 65*s.* and a few very fine from 67*s.* to 68*s.* The duty is estimated at 200,000*l.*

FAIRS.—Monday, Nettleberd.—Tuesday, Banbury, Faringdon, Marlow.—Saturday, Oakingham.

Hereford Pitt Club.—On Tuesday, the 22d inst. a highly respectable meeting of the members of the club took place at the hotel, in Hereford, to celebrate the anniversary of the birth of that distinguished Statesman, the Right Hon. Wm. Pitt. The Chairman, on this occasion, was K. B. Patershall, Esq. who was most ably seconded by Viscount Eastnor, M. P. Upwards of Nearly 80 sat down to dinner, including the Chief Steward, Earl Somers, Viscount Eastnor, M. P., Sir J. G. Cotterell, Bart. M. P., Sir H. Hoskyns, Bart., Colonel Matthews, Major-Gen. Armstrong, the Very Rev. the Dean, Rev. H. Wellerald, the Mayor of Hereford, &c. &c. In the course of the evening several patriotic speeches were delivered, and a variety of loyal and constitutional toasts, songs, &c. introduced, and the evening passed off in the highest style of convivality and good humour. The new members elected were Spencer Compton, Esq. Samuel Compton, Esq. R. Compton, Esq. J. Griffiths, Esq. of the Weir, Richd. Dickerson, Esq. Eaton Bishop, Rev. W. T. Eyre, Blockley, Worcestershire, and —— Baskerville, Gent.

Pocock, Esq.—At Hastings, William Oswell, Esq. of Wanstead, Essex.—Mr. Rounain, of the Royal Oak Inn, Devizes.—At Bath, aged 77, James Bold, Esq.—Ann, only daughter of the late Mr. Cruttwell, proprietor of the Dorchester and Sherborne Journal.

W. REED,

Currier and Leather Cutter,

BEGS leave to return his thanks to his friends and the public in general for the generous support he has met with since he has commenced the above Business, and informs them that he has no connexion in Trade with Mr. RANDALL, or any other person whatever—a report to that effect having been maliciously circulated.

Brewer's Lane, Oxford, Oct. 25, 1822.

RICHARD WEST

BEGS to inform the Noblemen and Gentlemen of the University and City of Oxford, that he has taken to the LIVERY STABLES for many years in the occupation of Mr. FORSTER, nearly opposite Christ Church; and having fitted up the same in the most convenient manner, he humbly solicits their support, assuring them that the horses entrusted to his care will receive every attention.

Oxford, October 26.

E. S. HITCHINGS

RETURNS her most sincere thanks to those Gentlemen who for so many years honoured her late husband. Mr. H. E. HITCHINGS, with their patronage: Begs to inform them, that she will duly attend to carry on the Business, she, with every grateful acknowledgment, declines that continued patronage which has been so kindly proferred to her; but begs permission to solicit it in behalf of Messrs. TRIBE, to whom she has this evening sold the Business.

Mrs. H. will feel obliged by the payment of the bills owed to her late husband, being made to her, as early as convenient, at her residence at Mr. Cox's, New Inn Lane, Oxford.

Oxford, Sept. 23, 1822.

W. TRIBE and SON

HAVING succeeded to the Business of the late Mr. H. E. Hitchings, beg to solicit the continuance of those favours so liberally bestowed on him, and of assuring those Gentlemen who may honour them with their commands, that nothing shall be wanting on their parts to render themselves in every way deserving of the same.

WILLIAM TRIBE, sen. flatters himself that having carried on the Business of a TAILOR for 22 years, in London, the unbiased opinion of himself and Son will prove successful at Oxford; and they trust, that by a strict attention to business, they will be enabled to afford every satisfaction.

Oxford, opposite Christ Church, and at 25, Jermyn-street, Cavendish-square, London.

Fringford House Estate, Oxon,

TITHE FREE,

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION,

By Mr. FISHER,

At the Mitre Inn, Oxford, on Thursday the 7th of November next, at Five o'clock in the afternoon,—FORTY-TWO LOTS (as staked out) of rich FREEHOLD PASTURE LAND, lying on the north side of Fringford, in the parish of St. Ebbe, partly bounded by a branch of the river Isis. The lots now for sale are more desirable than the land adjoining, which has been lately sold, the ground being much higher, and the situation altogether better.

Some of the lots have choice fruit trees growing upon them, and the intended roads or streets will be so arranged, as that communication may be had with the new street and buildings, late Penson's Garden, by which means great facility of access will be afforded to the principal parts of the city.

The arrangements for sale will be completed in a few days, when plans of the proposed lots will be deposited with the auctioneer, and at the Office of Messrs. Walsh, solicitors, Oxford; and printed particulars and conditions of the intended sale will be furnished in due time.
