From Tuesday's London Gazette.

BY THE KING.
A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE R.—Whereas our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday, the 5th day of January next; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said 5th day of January next, to Thursday, the 22 day of February next; and we have given order to our Chancellor of that part of our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a Commission for proroguing the same accordingly: and we do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare our royal will and pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the 22 day of February next, be held and sit for despatch of divers urgent and important affairs. And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Burghs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly at Westminster, on the said 22 day of February next.

Given at our Court at Carlton House, this 20th day of December, 1825, and the sixth year of our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

LONDON.

THE KING'S COURT.

On Tuesday his Majesty held a Court and Council at his Palace in Pall-mall. His Majesty arrived in town from Windsor in his travelling carriage and four, escorted by out-riders a few minutes after one, and about two o'clock the members who were to attend the Court and Council began to assemble; they consisted of his Royal Highness the Duke of York; the Earl of Liverpool, First Lord of the Treasury; Mr. Robinson, Chancellor of the Exchequer; Mr. Peel, Home Secretary; the Lord Chancellor; the Earl of Harrowby, President of the Council; Viscount Melville, First Lord of the Admiralty; Mr. Wynn, President of the Board of Control; Mr. Huskisson, President of the Board of Trade; Mr. Canning, Foreign Secretary; the Duke of Wellington; the Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's Bench; the Duke of Dorset, Master of the Horse; the Recorder of the City of London; Prince Esterhazy; Mr. Beckett, the Judge Advocate; Marquis Graham, Lord Bexley, Mr. Greville. Previous to holding his Council, his Majesty gave audience in his private closet to the Earl of Liverpool and to Mr. Secretary Canning. His Majesty then entered the Council Chamber, where he held a Council, at which the Recorder of London made his Report of the unhappy convicts at present under sentence of death in Newgate. His Majesty signed a Proclamation for the dispatch of business, on Thursday the 5th of Feb. next. After the Recorder's Report had been taken into consideration, his Majesty gave audience to Prince Esterhazy, who attended the Court to take leave of his Majesty, previous to his retiring from his embassy in this country, and taking upon him that to the Court of France, to which he has been recently appointed. The Prince was introduced by his Majesty, Mr. Secretary Canning, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, the Master of the Ceremonies. His Majesty also gave audiences to the Duke of Wellington, the Lord Chancellor, and to Mr. Beckett, the Judge Advocate. His Majesty appeared in the best health and spirits. The Court did not break up until after 5 o'clock. At 6 o'clock his Majesty again entered his travelling carriage, and set off on his return to Windsor. Lord Delaware was the Lord in waiting; Colonel King, one of his Majesty's Grooms of the Bedchamber, was the Groom in waiting. Mr. Messenger was the principal Page in waiting.

IMPERIAL WEIGHTS and MEASURES.

MESSRS. ATTWOOD and WIMBLE beg leave respectfully to inform their friends, and the public in general, that they have received a Supply of Brass and Iron Weights, Pewter and Copper Liquor Measures and Pots. Wood Measures for Corn, Coal, and Fruit, according to the New Standard agreeably to Act of Parliament, to commence on the first of January, 1826.

The above may be had at their Ironmongery Warehouse, at the BOTTOM OF SCHOOL HILL, LEWES.

In consequence of the very great demand for the above Articles, they will be very much obliged for early applications for the same, to prevent disappointment.

N. B. Brass Imperial Weights and Measures, to be used for Corporations, Boroughs, and Hundreds.

JOHN BULL NEWSPAPER.

R. HENRY FOX COOPER, Editor of the JOHN BULL NEWSPAPER, from its commencement on the 17th of December, 1820, down to the date of this Notice, a Period of FIVE YEARS, has found it necessary to withdraw himself from the Editorship of the said Newspaper.

With gratitude for the repeated offers of friendship and assistance which, at various times, he has received, and which were particularly expressed towards him during his confinement in Newgate, in the months of May, June, and July, in the year 1821, (to which Prison he was committed by the House of Commons,) for an alleged libel on Mr. Henry Grey Bennett, Member in Parliament for Shrewsbury, the consideration of which occupied the attention of the House of Commons for nearly a week, now most respectfully acquaints the loyal Public that he intends, on Sunday, the first of January, 1826, to publish the first Number of a Paper, to be called COOPER'S JOHN BULL.

It, perhaps, is not necessary for him at this time of day to state the principles upon which his Paper will be conducted—for—are they not to be found in the columns of the John Bull, written in plain language, alike in prison and out of prison? all that is good and worthy, in the United Empire? In short—for GOD, THE KING, AND THE PEOPLE!"

December 20, 1825.

 An Edition containing the latest News, the Markets generally, the Stock List, &c. will be published at Three o'Clock every Monday.

☞ Orders for the Paper and Communications addressed to the Editor, (post paid) will be thankfully received at the Office for Advertisements, No. 68, Fleet Street.

HORSHAM

SURREY, SUSSEX, and SOUTHWARK,
FIRE AND LIFE
ASSURANCE COMPANY,
St. Margaret's Hill, Southwark,

THIS Company has been formed upon principles combining the most perfect security, with advantages equal to if not greater, than those offered by any similar Institution.

The Fire and Life Departments are kept distinct, thus affording the same advantages as if the Assurances were effected at separate offices.

Persons Assured, either against Loss by Fire, or upon Lives, will periodically participate in the Profits, without any liability on their part to contribute towards Losses.

REDUCED RATES OF ASSURANCE.

The following Reductions have taken place on the Rates of good Risks, in the under-mentioned Classes:—

First Class, from 2s. to 1s. 6d. per cent. (which includes Farming Stock generally, without an average clause).

Second Class, from 3s. to 2s. 6d. per cent.

Third Class, from 5s. to 4s. 6d. per cent.

But this Reduction will not apply to Assurances where it would bring the Premiums to less than 5s.

The Premiums on Life Assurance are calculated on the most liberal terms.

G. W. WILSON, Secretary.
