Important to Families,

FINE TEAS OF ALL DESCRIPTIONS CHEAPER!!!

IT is a matter of UNIVERSAL COMPLAINT among Families, that it is almost impossible to obtain GOOD TEA, on the high price at which it is generally sold. This arises, in a great measure, from the manner in which it is purchased by most country Grocers, who, instead of buying it at the first hand, and thereby saving to themselves and their customers all the INTERMEDIATE PROFIT, generally buy it of the wholesale dealer, and by that means subject this necessary article of subsistence to an ENORMOUS TAX, before it reaches the tea-pot of the consumer.

For the information of Families we have to state that our Tea Concern at Brighton is established for the purpose of supplying them with the STRONGEST AND RICHEST FLAVOURED TEAS, at the smallest possible profit, for ready money; and invariably offers advantages in the purchase of this article equal to the first London Wholesale Houses, either for Variety, Quality, or Price.

At the East India Company's Tea Sale, which is just concluded, fine PEKOE FLAVORED CONGOUS and SOUCHONGS, as well as HYSONS, sold much cheaper; and these DELICIOUS TEAS we shall now offer at prices within the reach of every Family. THEIR MUSKAL CHEAPNESS and FINE QUALITY will cause them to be eagerly sought after.

Noblemen's and Gentlemen's families visiting Brighton will not now be under the necessity of bringing their supplies of Tea with them; as our establishment is on a scale adapted in all respects to meet the views of the higher classes of society, the public in general, and all large consumers; we, therefore, respectfully give to ALL a general invitation to put our pretensions to the proof.

COFFEE.

Families at this season of the year usually consume more Coffee than during the summer months. We wish particularly to impress on their minds, that we buy all our Coffee from the Importers; that we roast it ourselves, on the most improved principle, and from the large demand we uniformly experience we can sell

Good Jamaica Coffee at	1s. 6d. ⅌ lb. ordinary lower.

The only Genuine Pectoral BALSAM of HONEY,
Invented by SIR JOHN HILL, M. D.

FOR COUGHS, COLDS, ASTHMAS, and CONSUMPTIONS, this medicine is unequalled; the Asthmatic and Consumptive may rely on relief, and by due perseverance on a cure. Those whose lungs are injured by Colds, or oppressed by a quantity of Glutinous Matter, will find a safe and certain Remedy. It opens the thoracic Ducts, heals the soreness of the breast, removes difficulty of Breathing, promotes easy expectoration, and prevents as well as cures all consumptive Affections, so fatal to thousands in this country.

No medicine was ever so universally counterfeited as this and a few years ago, the Wife of the Rev. Robert Fowler, of Peterborough, had nearly fallen a sacrifice by taking a spurious preparation. The Proprietor therefore requests Purchasers will observe, no Balsam of Honey prepared under the direction of the late Sir John Hill, can be genuine unless the Name "Edwards, 97, St. Paul's," appear on the stamp.

The Balsam is sold in bottles, price 2s 9d and 5s 6d.

CLASSICAL AND MATHEMATICAL EDUCATION.

DR. BYRON, with no small degree of pleasure, feels desirous to apprise his numerous friends, that he has removed his School from 71, East-street, to Belle-Vue Hall, near St. George's chapel, Marine-parade, which beautiful and admired Mansion is surrounded by nearly four acres of land, and commands highly interesting and unusually extended sea and pastoral views. The situation is decidedly one of the most salubrious and delightful in the environs of Brighton. The play and pleasure grounds are very extensive and remarkably healthful. This singularly eligible residence will accordingly not only tend to render the accomodation of those intrusted to his care infinitely more complete, but also to ensure their general comfort and happiness. The domestic arrangements are conducted precisely on the scale of a greatest private family. The health, morals, and manners of the pupils are at all periods sedulously and anxiously attended to. The system of education, which has hitherto proved so highly satisfactory, is rendered peculiarly easy and manifestly; it is desirably calculated to assist and facilitate the progress of those whose studies have been previously retarded. Lectures on the Philosophy of Language and Mathematical subjects delivered weekly on the Cambridge plan. A spacious lecture room is attached to the establishment. The terms, which are moderate, vary according to age. Testimonials collegiate and from many of the Literati, together with references to the parents of children, will be offered.

☞ The School re-opened on Wednesday, the 21st instant.—Children, expressing terms and other particulars, may be had at Messrs. Lucombe's, Toppen's, and Loder's Libraries, and at Belle-Vue Hall School.

T. THORBY,

FROM THE HOUSE OF JOHN BELL & CO., OXFORD STREET, LONDON,

CHEMIST AND DRUGGIST,

35, NORTH STREET, BRIGHTON,

BEGS leave to recommend to the particular notice of the Nobility, Gentry, and Residents of Brighton, his highly estimated STOMACH and BILIOUS PILLS.

For Indigestion, Costiveness, Flatulency, Sick Ache, Loss of Appetite, &c., which are acknowledged to be one of the most generally useful remedies in all complaints to which the digestive organs are subject; particularly in bilious affections, and in a great variety of anomalous disorders which are the effect of a morbid derangement of stomach and the other organs subservient to the process of digestion. They are composed entirely of vegetable substances, and do not contain a single particle of calomel, or any other preparation of mercury. They operate in a gentle, yet sufficient manner, upon the bowels; removing all intestinal obstructions without giving the least pain or uneasiness, and do not (as is too often the case with many of the aperients in use) debilitate the system, but on a contrary use of them; this circumstance renders them invaluable to persons of constipated habits, who are obliged regularly to have recourse to purgative. The Stomach and Bilious Pills are decidedly the best medicine for continued head-ache, lowness of spirits, dizziness, heart-burn, &c., speedily relieving those disagreeable sensations, by restoring a healthy action to the stomach and to the whole course of the alimentary canal.

One of these Pills taken a little before or at Dinner is the best means of insuring a good digestion.

Sold wholesale and retail, by the Proprietor, 35, North-street, Brighton; and by J. Bell & Co., Oxford-street. Butler & Co., 4, Cheapside, and R. AMONG the numerous remedies that from time to time are offered to the public, none have obtained more extensive and durable a reputation as Drs. Jordan's Cordial Balm of Rakasir, which is now matchly resorted to by great numbers of invalids for relief in those debilities of the nervous system, which are the fruitful source of a large proportion of the studious, the fashionable, and the dissipated. It has a surprising power in controlling disordered sensibility, and in restoring to vigor into the languid powers of life. In affections of the head, whether accompanied with pain and giddiness, or marked by the more grievous calamity of impaired mental energy, in palpitation of the heart, flatulency, loss of appetite and strength, and the multiform symptoms of disordered digestion, this remedy will be found to possess the most salutary efficacy.

Prepared only by Drs. C. and J. JORDAN, of the West London Medical Establishments, 60, Newman-street, Oxford-street, and 13, Caroline-street, Bedford-square, London. ARTIFICIAL TEETH.
MR. CLARK,
SURGEON DENTIST,

(Late with Mr. Cartwright), from 3, Newman-street, London.

RETURNS his sincere thanks to the Nobility and Gentry of Brighton, and its Vicinity, for the kind patronage hitherto bestowed upon him, and respectfully begs to inform them that encouraged by the countenance of several families of distinction, he has been induced to take up a permanent residence in Brighton, relinquishing to his Brother his Metropolitan Establishment.

Mr. CLARK will, as usual, continue to fix Mineral, Natural, or Artificial Teeth, on the most modern and improved principle, from a single tooth to a complete set, which he guarantees will preserve the original form of the mouth, and restore to the wearer every comfort in mastication, speech, and appearance. Mr. C. will also continue stopping (with his newly invented composition) tender decayed teeth, without the least pain, or liability to produce tooth-ache from pressure, which so frequently occurs in the usual way of stopping. It is not a paste, or cement, that will decompose with the heat of the stomach, but a durable metallic composition, that will resist all alkali as well as acids; excluding air, moisture, &c. (the occasion of which is the prevalent cause of tooth-ache,) and forming a complete mass lacting surface.

Mr. C. invites Medical Gentlemen to witness the operation, which will at once convince them of its simplicity and good effects. AT HOME FROM TEN TILL FIVE.

127, St. James's Street.

SNOOK'S GENUINE APERIENT FAMILY PILLS.

A MOST excellent Medicine for Bile, Indigestion, Pains, Giddiness of the Head, Piles, Dropsical Complaints, and are in a considerable degree a preventive of various other diseases. Their composition is truly excellent, as they do not contain any Antimonial or Mercurial preparation whatever, and therefore when taken do not require the least confinement or alteration of diet, (moderate exercise promotes their good effects,) they seldom operate until ten or twelve hours after taken, and then very gently, they destroy worms, purify the humours, and evacuate all foul corruptions to which the Intestines are so liable, whereby so many diseases are produced—never gripe unless the inside be very foul, and then but little; by removing obstructions they cause the blood to pass in a keepsive pace, becoming a good restorative and preservative of health to both sexes, and to those of a costive habit a truly valuable treasure. Also SNOOK'S PECTORAL OR COUGH PILLS, for Coughs, Colds, Asthmas, and Shortness of Breath. Its well known that coughs and colds, (if not soon removed) are in many cases attended with considerable danger for the removal of which the Pectoral or Cough Pills are with confidence recommended as an excellent medicine, and in most cases a certain specific, a single box will be a sufficient trial to prove their good effects.—Each of the above Pills are prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by J. Snook, Chemist and Druggist, Bridgewater, Somerset, in boxes, at thirteen pence halfpenny each, duty included, or a family box containing three small boxes, at two shillings and sixpence, being a saving of seven pence halfpenny to the purchaser.—The stamp on each box of the Family and Pectoral Pills has the Proprietor's written signature, none are genuine—Sold wholesale and retail by Messrs. Barclay and Son, 95, Fleet Market; Sutton and Co. 10, Bow Church yard; Newbery and Sons, St. Paul's Church-yard; Mr E Edwards, 66, St. Paul's Church-yard; Messrs.
