WIDOW WELCH'S PILLS.—This Medicine is justly celebrated for all female complaints, nervous disorders, weakness of the solids, loss of appetite, impurity of blood, relaxation by intynse heat in warm climates, sick head-ache, indigestion, debility, consumption, lowness of spirits, and particularly for all obstructions in the Female System. Mrs. SMITHERS, grand daughter to the late Widow WELCH recommends mothers, guardians, managers of schools, and all those who have the care of females at an early age, never to be without this useful medicine.

It is also necessary to caution Purchasers, that they be not imposed upon by a preparation said to be by "LEWIS, formerly SMITHERS," as Mrs. Smithers, the Proprietor of the above Medicine, has not changed her name; the following letter from Mrs Lewis, will place the matter in its true light.

Walworth, Saturday, June 30th, 1827.

Dear Sister,—In reply to your enquiries to ascertain if I am a maker of Welch's Pills, or have consented to my name being used as such; I beg to inform you I have not consented to my name being used, and that I have not prepared nor sold any Pills for the last nineteen years; and that any preparation purporting to be now made by me, is a gross imposition; which I am ready to certify in any way, or court of law, which you may require of me.

I remain, dear Sister, yours truly,

SARAH LEWIS, late "SMITHERS."

Mrs. Smithers's genuine preparation has her signature on the outside label. Sold in boxes, price 2s. 9d. by her Agent, Mr. E. Edwards, 67, St. Paul's, (whose name and address is engraved on the Government Stamp,) and by all Booksellers and Druggists.

BRIGHTON AND SOUTHAMPTON.

NEW ENGLISH HOTEL AT ROUEN.

F. BRUNTON, proprietor of the Hotel de Rouen, Quai D'Harcourt, Rouen, in acknowledging the unprecedented patronage bestowed upon him by his countrymen since the opening of his Hotel last year, eagerly avails himself of the opportunity to inform the Nobility, Gentry, and the Public generally, that he has considerably enlarged his establishment, and assures them that nothing has been left undone that could contribute to their comfort and convenience, and that he shall continue to be guided by the same principle of moderation in his charges which has hitherto given such universal satisfaction, and he earnestly solicits a continuance of the flattering encouragement it has
