A JOURNAL OF ALL MANLY PASTIMES.

BIRMINGHAM, SATURDAY, JULY 27, 1907.

The Second International.

Confidence in R. E. Foster and His Team. Surrey's Amateur "Express" Likely to Appear Against the South Africans. Keen Game Expected at Leeds. Worcestershire's Great Batting Strength. Runaway Victory Over Hampshire. Warwickshire Experience More Disappointments, but Introduce Twin Brothers.

By "Argus Junior."

It was a newsmaker in the case for the evening, critics to find that those responsible for the choice of England's team had paid little regard to their grumblings, and had the audacity to choose for the second Test match, which commences at Leeds on Monday, precisely the eleven players to represent England. The whole of the players who appeared in the first Test were retained, with the exception of N. A. K. King, the Surrey amateur, who has a fast left-hand bat, and is a good bowler. His return to the team was a surprise, but it was a good one, as it was a sure sign that something was being done to improve the batting of the team. King's presence in the team is likely to be a great help to the captain, but it would be really only a matter of time before the captain would be able to do his duty. The team will be a strong one, and it is hoped that they will be able to do well.
