LEWES CORN MARKET.

At a numerous and respectable Meeting of Agriculturists, Millers, Maltsters, and others, interested in the Lewes Corn Market, held at the Star Inn, Lewes, the 27th February, 1819.

JAMES INGRAM, Esq. in the Chair,

It was unanimously Resolved,

That the recent attempt to alter the day for holding the said Corn Market, was prematurely undertaken by a comparatively small number of individuals, without any regard to the interest of the adjacent Markets, the public convenience, or the partiality that mankind entertain for institutions of long continuance, as well as of acknowledged benefit, the result of which has excited great disinclination; in consequence thereof, this Meeting cannot but express their disapprobation of such proceedings, and are therefore resolved to support the old-established Saturday's Market, by a regular attendance; at the same time they disclaim any thing personal towards those gentlemen who have thought proper to withdraw themselves and countenance a new Market Day, but invite them to unite again to support the interest, and meet the wishes of the neighbourhood in general.

Secondly—Resolved unanimously,

That the above resolution be signed by the Chairman, in and on behalf of the Meeting, and published twice in the Lewes Journal, and the Brighton Herald.

JAMES INGRAM, Chairman.

Resolved unanimously,

That the thanks of this Meeting be given to James Ingram, Esq. for his able and impartial conduct in the chair.

LONDON GENUINE TEA COMPANY,

23, Ludgate Hill, London,

This Establishment commenced on the 5th of November; and its merits have been so repeatedly canvassed, in consequence of the opposition by numerous Tea Dealers in the Metropolis, that it is needless to give the Public further particulars of the nature of the undertaking;—suffice it to say, that the idea of opening it suggested itself in consequence of the nefarious practices in the Tea Trade, proved, by numerous convictions in the Court of Exchequer, to have been most extensively carried on in all parts of the Kingdom; therefore, some respectable Gentlemen, seeking to connect public benefit with individual advantage, have formed this Establishment for the purpose of supplying Town and Country with

FOLKER AND CO.

LOOKING GLASS MANUFACTURERS,
CARVERS, GILDERS,
AND PRINTSELLERS,
From the late Firm of BOYDELL & Co. No. 90, Cheapside,

RESPECTFULLY announce to the Nobility, and Gentry at, and in the Vicinity of Brighton, that their spacious premises, situate

137, NORTH STREET, NEAR THE POST OFFICE,

Are now opened with a splendid Collection of Chimney, Pier, and Mirror Glasses, in superior Gilt or Buhl Frames, finished in every variety of modern elegance, the greater part of which are from designs exclusively their own. Window and Bed Cornices; Black, Mahogany, and Gold Mouldings for rooms, with every description of ornamental and decorative Gilding; Glass and Picture Frames re-gilt; and, unless much deteriorated, cleaned, and the lustre restored, by a peculiar process, at a considerably less expence than re-gilding; old Plates polished and silvered; Pier and Oval Glasses converted into Chimney Glasses at a moderate charge; Prints, Drawings, and Needle-work neatly or elegantly Framed and Glazed; Portraits, Cabinet, and Miniature Frames, &c.

F. and Co. without wishing to arrogate to themselves superior claims to encouragement, beg to observe, that their Stock being manufactured under their own personal superintendence, they flatter themselves their prices will be found so moderate, as decisively to supersede the necessity of families, either permanent or temporary residents, to incur either risque of breakage or expence of carriage, by sending their glasses from London; in addition to which, the selection of peculiarly fine plates devolves on one proprietor, who resides in the Metropolis (Southampton Row, Russell Square;) and who, in no instance, delegates this important arrangement to those who might be occasionally induced to relax in their exertions.

To those who may be inclined to honour their new establishment by patronage, F. and Co. have only to make this assurance, that it will ever be their study, by the most assiduous attention, to render themselves not unworthy the confidence they respectfully solicit, and are ambitious to merit.

A large assortment of ENGRAVINGS from the most celebrated Modern Masters, including many interesting periodical works, now in course of publication, specimens of which may be seen, and prospectuses had at their rooms as above.

A choice Collection of DRAWINGS, by first-rate Artists, for Sale, or lent to Copy.

Paintings cleaned, lined, and repaired.—Coach Plates of superior qualities.

Experience during a very long period has incontestably proved the superior efficacy of this Medicine over every other preparation in all cases of Colds, Coughs, and Asthmatic affections. By promoting gentle expectoration it very shortly relieves the patient of a slight or recent Cold, and a few doses are generally sufficient to remove those which neglect has rendered more confirmed and obstinate, and which are accompanied with Cough, Spitting of Blood, and other serious symptoms. Its peculiar balsamic powers tend to heal soreness and allay the irritation of the lungs, in cases of Cough; and in Asthmatic affections it assists, and gives freedom to the Breath. Thus it is an extensively valuable Remedy in the most prevalent class of Complaints in the Country, during the winter seasons. Many different Cough Medicines, however, being sold by persons under similar names to the above, the Public are requested, on applying for this Pectoral Elixir, to remark that each Bottle has the Government Stamp affixed to it, with the words "R. Butler, 4, Cheapside," engraved in the impression, without which it cannot be the genuine.

Sold in Bottles at 1s. 1½d. and 2s. 9d. by BUTLER and SONS, Chemists, No. 4, Cheapside, London, and 24, Sackville Street, Dublin; Lee, Bull, and Mitchell, Lewes; White, Brighton; Munday, Worthing; Marchant, Steyning; Constable, Storrington; Challen, Petworth; Mann, Horsham; McGeorge, Guildford; Palmer, Easingstead; Dowthwaite, Hastings; Cooke and Son, Rye; Chapman, Tunbridge Wells; also by the principal Druggists, Booksellers, and Medicine Venders in every Town throughout the United Kingdom.
