In Case no Police Bill is brought forward this Sessions, and the present Relaxation of Discipline continues, the Inhabitants of the Metropolis, and Kingdom at large, have a very alarming Prospect before them.—So great a Number as 288 capitally convibled in the Tountry at one Lent Affizes is unprecedented, and raght to rouse the general Letchargy of our Maychiates.

"The Face of Affairs here brightens every Day. Our Prospect is now more decidedly clear as to the Company being speedily extricated from their peruniary Difficulties, than it has been for these twelve Years pass. A careful circumspeet political Conduct in our several Governors cannot fail most effectually to accomplish the defirable End now in View of paying off the Bengal and Bombay Bond Creditors, and proving to the World, after that is done, that the Company is in a daily improving State. It is the united Opinion of every one here conversant with the Situation of their Affairs, that feen Years Peace will enable them to pay every Rupec they owe; but that a War will deny them the Possibility of doing so; thank God, from the present Appearance of Things, there is no Reason to apprehend a Rupture near. Could the above grand Event be ascertained, there is not an European would be the least uneasy as to the Safety of his fortune in the Company's Treasury, or would take a Pagoda left shann his Demand; in thort, on the Continuance of Peace all depends. Peace will in a few Years give the Company the Power of paying every Shilling. War, on the contrary, will prevent them paying One; however, as Peace is most probable, and War most unlikely, there is little Reason to doubt all will end well for the Company and their Creditors."

The splendid and magnificent Jeurney of the Court of Petersburgh to Cherson, which will take Place in a short from its or the Way, in a triumphal Car; and the Ceremony of her taking Possificion of certain Turkish Provinces will be attended with all possible Pomp, as she will be formally crowned Empress of those Provinces. The Pilgrimage to Mahomet's Tomb is not more numerous, it is thought, than will be this most super of Laurel, will be placed over a smaller Crown, adorned with Pearls, heightened with Hears at Liss, on the Empres's Head: The Tuba, or Tumppet of the Jubilee, will be then raised High from a Gallery, representing that which was used in ard martial multic, will then thrike up in grand Unifon, and Medals will be diffitibuted to the Populace.

We have Accounts from Tripoli, that the Plague has broke out there again, and that a Famine is apprehended to be the next Calamity that will be fuffered by the People of that Place, as the Fear of the Contagion keeps all foreign Veffels from entering their Ports.

Of all the Cabinets of the Curious, that of Copenhagen is faid to have the choiceft Urns; fix golden Sepulchral Urns are now in that Mulcun; they were dug out of the Earth, and are generally fupposed to be the Askes of some great Monarch ow Warrior. The same rich Cabinet has also some Sepulchral Vases of Chryslal, as well as a Tear Urn, or Urn for the Reception of Tears shed by those who wept over their deceased Friends, and which Tears were afterwards mingled with the Ashes of the burnt Corpse. The embosited Work on this last-mentioned Relic is represented to be most perfectly curious and beautiful.

The Anniversary of King Charles the Second happening this Year on the last Day of the Term, the Courts will not (as usual on State Holidays) be opened by the Puifne Judges, and then adjourn, but all the Judges will actend in their scarlet Gowns and Hoods, and go through the whole Business of each Court.

The fellowing travelling Ancedote was buzzed about on Saturday at the Opera-House. A foreign Nobleman, remarkable for his Parsimony, contrived this Method to save the Expence of Horses on the Road: He fet out in his own Chariot with one of the principal Men in his Household, and six more Attendants. a Number he thought fully sufficient, were bundled up in the Coach made fast to the Tail of a spring Waggen: In that Manner they proceeded on their Journey, which though perhaps not very expeditious, is no doubt very commendable for the Coach made (and for judicious a Conceit cannot but captivate the Admiration of all the Travellers of the Age.

It is now the Fathion for superlative Beauism to wear a Watch in one Fob, and a Compass in toother, with similar Chains. A Compass, they say, is the most necessary Article in the Drefs of a fixed Gentleman, by which he may be able to see the Way in a direct Course through the World without the Trouble of Thinking.

How chequer'd are these earthly Scenes—how variegated the Lot of human Nature!—Since Christmas, Robert May, Elizabeth Guerney, and Thomas Trimmer, have died in the Pouliry Compter (as appears by the Coroner's Verdict) for want of the common Newflories of List. Yet fince Easter, Two Thoustand Founds have been ipent, not an hundred Yards from the fame wretched spot, for one Dinner.

A Paper of Yesterday says, That Judgment had been pronounced at Paris, upon the several Perfons concerned in imposing upon the Jeweller by the Use of the Queen's Name, and that their Sentences were as follows:— A modam de la Motte to lose her Head upon a publick Seassfold.

Madam Cliva to be confined for Life.

Cardinal de Rohan banished for Life from Court, and to be confined for the fame Period within the Diffricts of his Country-feat and Gardens near Paris.

The fame Gentleman alfo informs us, that Madam de la Motte had made a full Confession of her Guilt, and all the Particulars, to her Spiratual Father, with Liberty for him to publish the fune, in which she fully exculpated Count Cagliotha from having any Share in, or Knowledge of the Imposition, and de-clared that the other Parties were her Dupes, and innocent of her Intent to defraud.
