HOUSE of LORDS.

Wednejder, March 19.

BEFORE their Lordthips entered upon the Difcetifion of the India Declaratory Bill.

Lord Stormout requested fome noble Lord, high in Office, would give some Explanation on a Subject, which, though it did not relate to the Bushness that was going to take up the Attention of their Lordships, was certainly of the greatest Importance. It was a Matter of Notoriety, that there existed at this Moment, very powerful naval Armanents in the Ports of Spain. It was also a Matter of Notoriety, that there existed at this Moment, very powerful naval Armanents in the Ports of Spain. It was also a Matter of Notoriety, that their Armaments began at a Time when it was probable Great Britain and France would soon be at War with each other; and the avowed Object of Spain was to take a Part with the latter. But when the Difference between this Country and France was amicably determined, Spain did not disarm; on the contrary, the continued her hostile Preparations till her naval Armaments became as powerful, as it was publickly known they were at this Moment. Now what he wished to learn was, Whether any Explanation had taken Place between our Court and that of Spain, on so very important a Subject; and in what Light these Proceedings of the Court of Madrid ought to be viewed.

The Marspin of Carmanthem said, he did not mean to go into Particulars relative to the Extent or Objects of the Armaments to which the Noble Lord had alluded; but he thought their Lordships would deem it sufficiently satisfacity to hear, that these Armaments, whatever might be the Extent of them, did not pretend, or were meant to convey the mod distant Idea of Hotility to this Country.

Lord Stormout replied, that if the Noble Lord was determined to give no further Explanation of this Eusines, when the meant to be convey the mod distant Idea of Hotility to this Country.

Lord Stormout replied, that if the Noble Lord was determined to give no further Explanation of this Eusines in the Execution of the Noble Lord was determi

Lord Sydory faid, that there was only one of the Regiments that was not nearly complete; and it was intended, that the Privates of that One should be drafted into the other Three, which, by that Measure would become complete: The Officers of the Fourth Regiment were to remain in England to recruit, and to complete their Establishment in Time to be fent

Lord Laggbborngb replied, that the House was now to understand that only Three Regiments, confitting of carrely 2100 Privates, were to fail this Scason; and that the Fourth was to remain in this Country in the Pay of the East India Company from the Day it was embodied.

LONDON, MARCH 20.

Last Night a very strong Protest was entered on the Journals against the Declaratory Bill, in which the strong constitutional Argument against it, and the various Topics which have been so ally disfussed in both Houses, are pointedly and nervously stated. It was figned by several of the highest Characters.

figned by feveral of the highest Characters.

The Business of the present Sessions is now nearly gone through. The further Objects of Consideration are, the Exportation of Wool, and the Slave Trade, which will not take up much Time; and if the Trade of Mr. Hastings had not happened, the Parliament would have been prorogued uncommonly carly. Both the Houses, however, must necessarily sit, in Consequence of the Trial, which will be finished about the Middle of June. Middle of June who are to June. We underfined there is an Intention, on the Revival of the Trial of Mr. Haftings, that, at leaft during the Term, the Court is to fit but two Days in the Week, on Wednetdays and Saturdays.

on Wednetdays and Saturdays.

The Buffnefs of the Irifh Mint commences by an Address to the Crown from the Irifh Commons—the establishing of Mints being a Branch of the Prerogative. The Reason upon which the Application is grounded is this—that the Colo fine to ver to Ireland is constantly fivested and clipped, and the Lofs to the Nation above One Hundred Thousand a Year.

Ireland daily improves in Commerce and in Legiflation. By an Act of Henry VIII. no Native of that Country could fill the Office of Viceroy—by a Statute, originating in a Metfage from the Crown, that Act is now about to be repealed.

It is confidently afferted, that the Prince Potemkin has been banished by the Empress of Russia to Siberia; the Reason of which is not positively known, but is supposed to arise from the Intrigues of a certain Field Marshal, his declared Enemy, who, jealous of his superior Abilities and ardent Spirit of Enterprize, has abouted for some Time past to have him removed from the Councils and Considence of his Royal Mistress. The greatest Enemies of this unfortunate Prince agree in attributing to him great Abilities and an extensive Knowledge, but declare his Removal nocessary on Account of his overbearing Temper.

His Royal Highners the Prince of Wales has ap-pointed the Rev. Henry Jenkin, B. D. Rector of Uf-ford, in Northamptonshire, to be one of his Royal Highners's Chaplains in Ordinary.

It is reported, that a very unexpected Change has taken Place in the Politics of this Country, as far as they relate to our Northern Connections.

The Pruffian Troops in Holland are to quit the Republic in the Courfe of this Month, and will be replaced by thofe of Anfpach and Wirtemburgh, which are hired by their High Mightineffes.

The Dauphin, when the laft Advices came from Verfailles, was expected not to furvive the Night.

The King and Monsieur also are but indifferent; the Tendency to Dropsical Complaints, and from the same Causes in both, is more and more apparent.
