LONDON, APRIL 10.

THIS Day arrived the Mails from Flanders, in which it is faid that Spain has made a Demand on France of the Affifiance of 24,000 Men, conformably to the Family Compact, entered into in 1756, with a Threat, that unlefs the Demand be immediately compiled with, the faid Compact will be confidered as entirely broken.

as entirely broken.

The Spanish Armaments begin to give a very ferious Turn to our political Deliberations, as the Allegation of its being intended to oppose the Progress of the Russian Fleet into the Mediterranean, seems to have no Weight. It is faid that Orders are given for hiring Tenders to be in Preparation towards manning the Ships for a Fleet of Observation.

the Ships for a Fleet of Observation.

Yesterday there was a Lexce at St. James's, at which were prefent his Majetly, the Dukes of Doriet, Northumberland, &c. the Secretaries of State; Marquisses of Lothian, Titchfield, Stafford, &c. Earl of Salif-bury; Lords Camden and Heathfield; Mr. Pitt; the Prince De la Tour and Trais; all the foreign Ministers, &c. &c. &c. There was no Council. The Duke of Doriet and Marquis of Stafford had Closet Conferences till Five o'Clock, when his Majetly returned to the Queen's Palace, and in the Evening the Royal Family went to the Concert of Ancient Musick.
