TUESDAY'S POST. HOUSE of LORDS.

HOUSE of LORDS.

Saturday, April 12.

THIS Day, on the Motion of Earl Stanhope, their Lordthips went into a Committee of Privileges, Lord Hawke in the Chair. Earl Stanhope then moved, that the flanding Orders for excluding Strangers might be read; which being done, his Lordthip propofed two Amendments, shich were agreed to by the Committee, and ordered to be reported on Monday, and the Lords ordered to be fummoned. The Amendments go to exclude all Strangers from the Debates, except Peereffes, Peers eldet Sons, Scotch Peers eldet Sons, and the necessary Attendants of the House.

of the Houle.

Monday, April 14. The long Debate which was expected upon Lord Stanhope's Motion did not take Place, this Day as the Motion was not made, but postponed till Friday next.

LONDON, APRIL 15.

The Days appointed for the High Court of Parliament to fit in Wethninfer-Hall, to proceed on the Trial of Mr. Haftings, are Tuetdays, Wednetdays, and Thurfdays only; on Mondays, Fridays, and Sacriars, the Judges will fit in their respective Courts, to dispatch the Business of the Term.

The Office of Master of the Rolls in Ireland, now weams by the Deash of Mr. Rigby, being little short of Faur Thousand Pounds per Annum, it is shoped will be either applied to the Exigencies of the State, or only given on the Condition of the fame Davy being slone there by that Officer which is done in England.

The Right Honourable Henry Singleton, who possible the short of the fame Davy being slone there by that Officer which is done in England are slided on the Spot. It is well known here how much a Master of the Rolls is Assistant when the Court, when the Chancellor is engaged in the various Employments of his high Office. In Ireland the Attention of such an Officer is much more wanting, as the Court of Chancery stands still, to the great Inconvenience of Suitors, whenever the Chancellor is obliged to attend the Callle, Privy Council, &c. &c.

It being fixed that an Installation of the Knights Companions of the Bash shall take Place on the 19th of May next, a Chapter was held on Saurday at Twelve o'Clock in the Prince's Chamber, adjoining to the House of Lords, when the necessary Directions were given to the several Tradesmen and Attendants. Lord Rodney, Lord Heatsheld, Sir Robert Boyd, and Sir John Javris, were introduced for the first Time. The Chapter sat until Two O'Clock. Besides the above four Knights there are fix others who have not been installed, viz. Sir Archibald Campbell, now in the East-Indies, Lord Galway, Sir Charles Gray, Sir Frederick Haldimand, Sir William Fawcett, and Sir Joseph Yorke.

The following is a Copy of the two Admanition pronounced by the Chancellor of the Order, in delivering the Garter and Ribband to the Dukes of Dorse and Northumberland on Wednerday lalt:

Saturday the Purfer of the Neptune received his final ifpatches from the East-India-House; this Ship, which deflined for Chins direct, is the last for the Season.

Yefterday in the Court of King's Pench, the Caufe between Peterhouse College and the Bishop of Ely was determined. The Court were of Opinion, that the two Gentlemen whom the Fellows had chosen and presented to the Bishop, that he might return one of them as Master of that College, were elected according to the Statutes of the College. These two Gentlemen were Mr. Borlace and Mr. Barnes. The Court herefore granted a Mandamus to the Bishop to admit either of them he pleased.

The Neighbourhood of the Savoy were Yesterday much alarmed by a Fire in the Savoy Prison, which broke out soon after Two o'Clock in the Asternoon, and which was wilfully set on Fire by the Prisoners confined for Desertion, from different Regiments.

On the first Discovery of the Fire, the Turnkey entered the Prison, and was immediately seized by a Number of these desperate Fellows, declaring that they would dispatch him; and were about to throw him into the Fire, which barbarous Act was however prevented by the Humanity of one of the Prisoners.

The Turnkey upon being liberated, instantly incomed the Figure Canada at the Baraches, consisting from the Prison of Found the Prisoner of the prisoners.

The Turnkey upon being liberated, inflandy informed the Piquet Guard at the Barracks, confliting of 27 Men, who immediately went to the Prifon, under the Command of Capt. Freemantle, and drove the Prifoners, to the Number of Sixty-three, into a Cell, where they were locked up during the Time the Prifoners were investigated by the Prifoners were brought out, two by two, and hand-cuffed together. Eighteen of the moit desperate were fent, efcorted by a Party of the Colditream, to the Tile Yard, to be properly fecured; and at Seven or Clock, the Reft of the Incendiaries, guarded by thirty Men, commanded by Captain Gregory, affifted by the Officers of the Police, were taken to the New Gate-House in Tot-full-Fields, where they are properly fecured, and guarded by a Party of the Colditream, to the Number of Twenty-five.

Several of the Rioters were feverely wounded by the Soldiers, before they could be properly fecured, and puarded.—Sir Sampson Wright was also prefent.

A Captain in the service of Hesse Cassel, having been lately caned by the Ladgrave while he was exercising one of his Regiments, immediately stuck his Espoontoon in the Earth, and went home. His Highness soon after reflecting on the Impropriety of his Conduct, sent the injured Officer a Colonel's Commission, which he received coldly, and faid he would wait upon his Highness to express his Sense of the Favour. He did so; and told the Landgrave, that he received no Pleasure from the Promotion:

"You have taken from me what I valued more than "my Life—my Honour;" and instantly taking out a Pistol, discharged it throught the Window, saying, "That, Sir, in the first Transport of my Rage, was intended for you; but you being my Sovereign has induced met to alter my Purpose." He then drew out a second Pistol, and shot himself in the Prince's Presence. The Corpse was thrown out of the Window, and ordered to be interred by the common Hangman, which, on the Continent, is the greatest Mask of Insam,. The Gartison, however, becoming mutinous, it was thought prudent to suffer it to be buried with all Milliary Honours. The Relations of the Deceased intend to apply to the Emperor for Redress.

A Letter from Captain Oliver of the Annabella, at St. Kitt's, says, that a terrible Disorder has broke out on that Island, and carried off many Persons, sometimes three and sour of a Family in a Day, and also a great Number of Slaves. He surface says, that his Passingers were 6 terrified on receiving the first Account, they would not go on Shore, searing it to bethe Plague. The Disorder comes in the Throat, which seeds to such a Degree, that it puts an End to their Existence in a few Hous.
