The National Deputy Courrar ho has this day received Sentence of Death.

The Wife of KOLLI has this day fuffered Decapitation, after a fhort refpire. Her Hufband the Ex-Farmer General has long ago fuffered the fame fate.

Four other perfons, convicted of counter-revolutionary defigns, were condemned to death the day before yefterday, and executed within a few hours of their condemnation.

Bailly, the late Mayor, will foon fuffer a fimilar fate; he has been transferred to the Conciengerie, and so has General Carles.

he has been transferred to the Contergence, and to maGeneral Carles.

The Wife of Roland is speedily to be tried, and her condemantion is anticipated as certain and inevitable.

Generals Hunchard and Brunet, the Abbe Bartheleny, and Bailly the Ex-Mayor of Paris, have just been removed from the Abbaye to the Prison of the Contergeris.

The Army of the Eastern Pyrenées has just repulsed the

TRIAL OF LOUIS PHILIP EGALITE,

TRIAL OF LOUIS PHILIP EGALITE,

The Trial of the Monster EGALITE came on before the Revolutionary Tribunal on the 7th inst. The following is the only part of his Interrogatory thus far published in the Paris Papers, and it whosly relates to the charge respecting the intimacy substitute Beautiful and SILLERY.

Judge—"Did not a great intimacy substitute the tween you and SILLERY?

Egalini—"I was attached to SILLERY as long as I trusted in his patriotism; as foon as I doubted it, I ceased to wist him."

Judge—"You have however charged his Wife to accompany your Daughter?"

Egalini—"Yes, but it was at a period when I believed in SILLERY's patriotism; in other respects, that carbushed william has just expiated his crimes like his accomplices."

By accounts from Bruffels, of the 11th, we learn, that the French had made a movement in the neighbourhood of Poperingue, and appeared to have forme defign again upon Menin; but the force in that quarter, aided by the zeal of the brave Inhabitants of West Flanders, who are now all armed, has induced them to defist.

We have certain information from a quarter on which we can rely, that the ROYALISTS are firong in Calvados and Mayenne.

and Majeune.

Accounts were yesterday received in Town, by a Meffenger from Ireland, of the Death of Lady Westmorland. She died the day before the Messenger came away, of a violent Fever. The Irish Papers mention the circumstance of her Excellency having had a relapse, which has unfortunately proved stall. Her Ladyship has left four chitdren. She was the daughter of the late Mr. Child, the Banker, and of Lady Ducie, who died a few months since.
