OXFORD, APRIL 4.

Yesterday evening the Rev. James Stopes was instituted to the Vicarage of Wormald in the County of Bucks, by the Lord Bishop of Lincoln, upon the Presentation of Edward Home, Esq.

Lately was married the Rev. Mr. Day, Fellow of Magdalen College in this University, to Miss White, Daughter of Dr. White, Bury, Suffolk.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Walter Hilton Jeffoy of Fairford, in the County of Gloucester, Gentleman, a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Last Week died at Simon-Ward, in the County of Cornwall, the Rev. Dr. Gilbert Parker, Rector of Odington in this County, and late Fellow of Trinity College in this University.

On Friday the 27th of March died, at her House at Wilcot in this County, Mrs. Wellington, in the ninety-ninth Year of her Age. Whether we regard her Ministration to the distressed Objects of her Neighbourhood; her tender and affectionate Care for her Relatives; her Hospitality to her Friends; her mild and amiable Disposition to those around her—in all these various Duties the Country will long respect the Memory of this venerable Lady as a bright Example of whatever was precious and praise-worthy.

Yesterday being Good-Friday, the Day was strictly and devoutly observed in this City and University.

No Variation in the Stocks since our last.

Advertisements omitted this Week, will appear in our next.
