HOUSE of PEERS, MARCH 30.

BREACH OF PEVILLET.

THE Order of the Day being called for, The Earl of Oxford rote to complain of a conduct perfonally differefeetful towards himefift and a breach of the privilege of the Houget, He begged leave, therefore, to move, "That the Lord Chancellor, in taking away the motion of any Noble Lord, fo that the fame cannot be entered on the Journals of the Houfe, is a high breach of privilege; and that Lord Kenyon, acting as Pro-Chancellor, having taken away the motion of the Earl of Oxford, made on the 23d of March, 1797, has been guilty of a high breach of privilege, and that he be centred on the fame.

Lard Kenyon rofe to fpeak, but the question being loudly called for, Lord Oxford insifted, that the Contents on his motion had it, when it appeared that he was left alone upon his motion. It was then ordered that these proceedings mould not be entered upon the Journals of House.—Adjourned.

Paris Journals to the 24th inft. arrived yesterday. There is an official article from the army of Italy, which states, that the French have signed leveral partial advantages in that quarter, and that Treviso had again fallen into their hands. They have allo been successful in three other points, but nothing of importance has refulted from any of these victories. Upon the Rhine, Gen. Moreau is making the most formidable preparations for the recommencement of hossilities. In the capital, the Primary Assemblies have mer, and the utmost strangeristic properties of the recommencement of hossilities. On the subject of Peace, the Journals are completed to the subject of Peace, the Journals are completed to the subject of Peace, the Journals are continued to the Prench ports. The above supers were brought to Dover is an open boat, navigated by a few English prisoners.
