was then put, and carried in the amrinative. An office for annutrice, winder the fanction of Government, it is fait, will foon be established. Government will be a great gainer by it, and all attached money out lying will be subject to it. Mesterday morning at eight o'clock, two o'his Majethy's Messengers, attended by two police officers, went to the houte for Mr. Evans, in Plough Court, Fetter Lane, and apprehended Benjamin Binns, brother of John Binns mov confined in the Tower, and Alexander Galloway, formerly Secretary to the Corresponding Society. They were taken in bed, the officers having burif open the door of the apartment in which they slept. Binns, whose papers were likewise feized, had only arrived in town four days since from Ireland, where he received in which they slept.
