Saturday's Post. By Express. LONDON, MARCH 29.

To appears that it was to the capture of the fortreis of Luxienfeig, that the rapid prores for the French in the country of the Grifons is principally owing; for they cut off by that means all communication between Gen. Auffenberg and the troops ander the command of Gental Hotze in the Voralberg. The Grifon territory is feparated from the Voralberg by a chain of impatible mountains, (the Rhetiam Mountains) which extends feven or eight leagues between the valley of Montafern and Mayenfeid. There is no other channel of communication than away formed out of the rock along the Rhine, and at the extremely of which is flustrating being down the control of the cont

We are happy to flate that the accounts from the Welf-Indies are very flattering. The quantity of fugar to be brought home is great, and the illands are perfectly quiet and peaceable. The Spaniards have fent out feveral thips of war, the defination and object of which are doubtful, but it requires only that our cruizers floud be but commonly active to preferve our trade against their depredations. It appears, however, that they have taken feveral of our velfels.

PRINCE ADOLENDS.—Mr. Greaville in his journey to the Court of Berlin had a double commission. His Royal Highness Prince Adolphus, the youngest of our Princes of the Blood Royal, when last as Berlin, became enamoured of the Princer's Lewis, sifter to her Prussian, they would have the summer of the princer's Lewis, the wrote most pressing folicitations to their Majefley, and wildow of the late Prince Lewis.
