L. N. D. D. D. N., April 2.

Saturday Captain Newhouse, late of the Perserell floop, arrived at the Admiralty, with dispatches from Earl St. Vincent at Gibraltar, containing in addition to the letters from his Lordnip in the Gazette, the burning of two Neapolitan flujes of the line off Naples by the Portuguel Guadron, to prevent their falling into the hands of the Prench. This officer who ferved under the command of the noble Bard during the time the has had the command in the Mediterranean, came home in the Careamadel armed transfort, in twenty-nine days from Gibraltar. A veific belonging to be Prepared there, was able to discover only fis fail of the line and two frigates ready for sea.
