FROM THE LONDON GAZETTE.

DOWNING STREET, $4PT.15.

COLONEL Frafer, commanding his Majefty to the county of Africa, by letter acquaints Lord Hobart with the destruction of a new Spanish ship pierced for 30 guns, laying off Senegal; with which veiled Criseen Renaud proposed, as foon as the cargo was lawded, to attack the British veiles trading for gum, in the open roads of Port-Andique, then, renewing the depredations that had been formerly committed at Sierra Leone and other feetlements, to run with the plunder for Cayenne. The fervice was performed by a detachment from the garrifon of Gorée, consisting of Ensigns M'Dermot and Kingley, Affillant - Surgeon Ryan, and forty men, under the command of Capt. Lloyd; affised by Mr. Olderman, commander of the Lucy merchantman, of Liverpool, the only armed veiled on this part the coult—All the persons employed were volunteers; and the slacrity with, which they engaged in the fervice merits the highest praise; no loss was fusfained. Whitehall, $5pt. 18. The King has been pleased to grant the dignity of a Baron of the United Kingdom of Tomes Britis and relard, unto the Right Hon. Murrough Marquis of Thomood, and his heirs male, by the title of Baron Thomood, of Tajebo Cout, Buckinghamstre.

L.O. N.D.O. N. September 17.
Parliament was yeferday prorogued to the sad of October. The Commitioners were, Earl St. Vincent, Earl Harrington, Lord Hobart, and the Lord Chancellor.
A letter is faid to have been received in town from Munffer, dated the evening of the 4th inft. which fates, that notwithflanding the firong remonstrances of Prutilia and France, the election of a Prince-Bifthop had taken place that day, and that all the vores were united in favour of the Archduke Anthony, the Emperor's brother.—The letter observes, that Count Weltphalen, the Imperial Committioner, had arrived at Munffer previously to the election, charged with communicating to the Chapter the Emperor's acknowledgments, and announcing, that the Archduke had already taken the first Ecclefailtical Orders, and was preparing to receive the other's which were necellary to qualify him for his new dignity. Should this be true, the election will involve the Emperor in a ferious dispute with the Cabinets of Berlin and the Thuilleries.

All that we read in the French papers (received yelferday, of the date of September 14) which can be made to refer to this slibelet, is, that the Minister of Cologue the sentence and the Protect of the King of Prufia.

The Hon. Mr. Paget, it appears, has passed throe Strasburgh, on his way to Vienna, having a passed fined by the Chefe Confol himself. Some nystery yet hangs about the mission of that gentleman.

a paffport figned by the Chief Conful himfelf. Some nyffery yet hangs about the million of that gentleman. The Earl of Hardwicke held a Privy Council at Dublin Caffle on Tuefday fe'nnight, when a proclamation was at the fame time directed to be iffued, fimilar to one which has been lately published in England, requiring the inhabitants of the maritime counties of Dublin, Meath, Louth, Down, Antrim, Londonderry, Donnegall, Leitrim, Sligo, Mayo, Galway, Clare, Kerry, Cork, Waterford, Weschord, Wicklow, and Limerick, to be ready to remove their cattle, horfes, cars, carriages, &c. to certain parts, if they fhould be called upon for that purpofe by the General Officers comnanding in their respective diffricts.

The flew of invafion is fill kept up along the French, Flemith, and Dutch coaffs. Admiral De Winter is fald to be on the point of putting to fea. Gen. Lafnes, Bonaparte's relation, is arrived at Dunkirk to concert meafures with Adm. Neilly. Rear-Adm. Trevile remains at Joulogne. Adm. Truguet has taken command of the Spanish fleet at Cadiz, which is faid to be easily for fea.

The attempt which was to have been made by the fire-flips belonging to Sir Edward Pellew's fuguadron on the enemy's veffels in Rochefort harbour has been given up, in confequence of the firength and mumber of the batteries by which they are covered.

A very gallant action, we understand, has been fought off Rochefort, by the Amelia frigate, Capt. Herbert, with a squadron of three French frigates and a fehooner, which the compelled to return to port.

A letter from Copenhagen, dated August 20.

Capit. Herbert, with a iquation or interfrigates and a fehooner, which the compelled to return to port.

A letter from Copenhagen, dated August 29,
states as follows:—The Secretary of State, Count Bernstond, Tertured this day from his mission to London. It is affired that the dispatches carried to Peterfburgh by the young Count de Lowandalh, and to London by Lieutenant Glafs, are relative to a particular Convention between England and Denmark.—Still our Ministers at the above Courts have been authorised to accede to the Convention concluded between Russia and Great Britain, but on conditions which have not as yet been made public. Our colonial troops, which were brought over to Europe by the English, are arrived in the Sound, and will soon encamp on a for which has been allotted for them, where they will perform a kind of quarrantine.

We are extremely forry to inform the public, that the last advices from Egypt give a very melancholy report of the state of health of our brave wounded folders in the hofpital at Abuskir.—
The unnot care has been taken that their diforder should not spread among the troops who are in health.

The rejection by Gen. Menou of the Treaty reginated tolders's in the hotpital at Aboukir.—

If the utmolt care has been taken that their differder should not spread among the troops who re in health.

The rejection by Gen. Menou of the Treaty of Cairo is generally considered by the army as ortunate; as, fince the embarkation of General Selliard's troops at Rofetta, there can be no ear, even from the bad faith of the enemy; and the selliard's troops at Rofetta, there can be no ear, even from the bad faith of the enemy; and the selliard's troops at Rofetta, there can be no ear, even from the bad faith of the enemy; and the selliard's troops at Rofetta, there can be no ear, even from the bad faith of the enemy; and the selliard to the selliard's troops at the selliard's troops at the selliard's troops.

In respect to the ultimate fait of Alexandria, not the insalled apprehension can be entertained. It is simposed that a 0.000 troops can be spared to the blockade of the city, including the Turkish army. Allowing the original force that was loaded in Egypt not to exceed 12,000 effective men, there have been reinforcements fent out from this country and Minorca to the number of eight thousand men, which, with the Bombay army, makes the total British troops to exceed thirty thousand men.

The Deputies from Hamburgh to Bonaparte to make peace for that city with France, after a fix months' refidence in Pirsi, have been unable to obtain an audience, and Bonaparte fays he gover will forgive them furrendering N. Tandy.

Last night the Hay Market closed a rather prooperous featon. On this occasion Mr. Fawcett, as Manager, came forward, and addressed the audience in the usfuel steps.
