NERDY TO SUBRENDER.—T. Deflett, Afhoott, feeffire, Victualler, November 26, 28, and Der 29, at the Swan Inn, Wells.

Advice was yellerday received at the Admiralty Office from Admiral George Montagu, Commander in Chief at Portfunouth, of the arrival of the Liberty cutter, with three French captured veifels, part of a floilla from Cherbourg. The Matter of the cutter had waited upon the Admiral, and informed him, that the Paulter, of 24 guns, commanded by Captain Dunbar, one of the cruiters attached to the Jefrey Quadron, had also, with the affiliance of the Liberty cutter, driven on fhore twenty-footing un-boats, part of the above floilla, near Cape La Hogue, and which were completely deflroyed.

Yeilerday dispatches were received at the Admiralty from Sir James Saumarez. They have brought accounts of a more than usual activity being observable among the French on the coast opposite Guernley and Jersey.

A letter from an officer on board the Fille de Paris, dated the 10th instant, contains the following important particulas:—

The French have, in the green conductive the fill of the Instant, and the Admiralty from an officer on board the Fille de Paris, dated the 10th instant, contains the following important particulas:—

The French have, in the green conductive the fill of the Instant o rand diflikes him, but as he fears him alfo, affects to pay the greatest deference to him.
