LONDON, March 14.

A Noverland dispatch was received yesterday from Iodia. Its contents principally consist of various documents, transfinited by Sir George Barlow, to elucidate the plan of pacification projected by Marquis Cornwallis, and the profess which had been made in carrying it into effect. A letter, received by the same converse which had been made in carrying it into effect. A letter, received by the same converse which had been made in carrying it into effect and the company's Commercial Agent at Rencolen, mentions the fafe arrival there of the company's Commercial Agent at Rencolen, mentions the fafe arrival there of the company's Commercial Agent at the company of the fafe arrival there of the company of the fafe arrival there of the company of the mention of the property of the same that quarter has completely quieted the fears settationed by the Malay inhabitants of another fift from the French.
