FROM THE HAMBURGH MAILS.

VIENNA, MAY 3.

THE late embarraffinent into which the Court of Vienna has been dirown, relative to the effairs of Dalmartia, appears to take a pacific turn; and it feems beyond a doubt, that the coline of Vienna has thought it proper to yield to the accessify of preferving peace. This conjecture is founded on the following circumstances:—18, The French column, which had made a movement in advance, has hatted, and the Auftrian prisoners have continued their prisoners have continued their active, and the Ponce himself will follow immediately, addy, The Commission of War, and after each fitting the protocole and interrogatory are communicated to the French Amballador.

It is faid that the trial of the Prince D'Auerf, and the protocole and interrogatory are communicated to the French Amballador to the Engency, to whom this fatisfaction is sometimed of the prince of the prince
