LONDON, MAY 19.

IN confequence of the arrival of Dutch papers to the 4th, we have received another French Bulletin, dated on the 1ft inflant, from Brannau, but its contents will be found of trifling importance. The capture of fome magazines at Brannau, and of an Auftrian battalion between Althum and Ried, by General Oudinot, are the only military occurrences which it records.

Of the remains of the army of the Archduke Lewis we know nothing, except that if ferms for weakened or difperfied, as to be incapable of giving any effectual opposition to the French in their progress to the capital. Nothing is faid of the recent operations in the Typol; and of the courfe of the war in Italy, our information is fo unfatisfactory as to justify an inference, that in that quarter the enemy has had no furceofs to boath of. His head-quarters were at Trevifo on the 4th, and the communication between Milan and Venice is faid to be quite free; but the Auditains never had, as far as we know, advanced far beyond the Pinve.

Dutch and German papers were alfo received yetlerday. They are, like the former, defitiate of any important reddit; and ferre only to prove, that the French accounts of their furcedles were highly exaggerated.

The Court of Vienna has published a heavy amphlet in the shape of a Maniesto against Frauce. It contains a long enumeration of grievances from the peace of Preburgh, down to the period of the present rupture. It is complained, 18, That the articles of the Treaty of Preburgh in favour of Austria, were either not carried into effect at all, or only after arbitrary and diadvantageous alterations, when all the conditions favourable to France were executed to the full extent within the time prescribed. 2d, That fresh contributions were levical after all the arrears of military requisitions were paid, and effects belonging to the Emperor circzed, to the value of 24,000,000 florins, without making the stipulated compensation. 3d, That a passage was peremptorily demanded by France, for her troops from the Venetian States to the Provinces on the East Const of the Adriatic, through the Austrian territory. 4th, That the Austrian territory on the right bank of the Izonga, was resulted to be evaluated, and the forteris of Brannau to be evacuated, on the first observable of the contributions were levical direction of Cattaro, for which the French Plenipotenturies were alone to blame. 5th, That the Austrian territory on the right bank of the Izonga, was resulted to be evacuated, and the forteris of Brannau to be eventuous, and the Emperor enjustify spoiled of his dignity. The paper constitution was violently overthrown, and the Emperor on pultily spoiled of his dignity. The paper constitution was violently overthrown, and the Emperor of the articles, and the condition of Members of Pariament was read a fecond time, and ordered to be committed to morrow.—The Autorney-General obtained leave to bring in a Bill to amend the Act respecting Sections and Treasonable Societies.
