LONDON, Max 30.

AMBURGH papers have come to hand to the 19th inftant. They give us no information of any thing that has happened in Germany elevant to the 6th. The King of Prufia has compelled to exert his authority for the fupino of the infurrection under Col. Schill, and iffued a Proclamation to forbid his fullyiets holding any communication with him. The rection, however, gains confiderable ground,—executed and fay, that his Prufian Majefty furnish 30,000 troops for the fervice of the locause.

inturcetion.

Durch papers to the 24th are arrived, by which it pipears that the French army did not enter Vienna ill the 12th inflant. The report of Ruffa having celared war againft Auftria appears fully conmed. The capital of Auftria was not furrencred without refittance. The Archduke Maxinilian, the governor of the city, had invited the titzens to make a vigorous defence; and when annes, who commanded the French advanced uard, fummoned it to furrender, the populace fell upon the Aid-de-Camp, and wounded him. The uburbs of Vienna are incapable of making any telence; but a brifk fire was kept up upon the 'rench from the ramparts, and the fummons to urrender was repeated. The city was then bombarded, and fet on fire in feveral places; but mearives having been taken to cut off the Archduke's etterat, and the French having paffed an arm of the Danube, his Royal Highnes's retreated with the troops, and a negociation was entered into for the urrender of the city. The capitulation was figned on the 12th, in the evening, and on the 13th the french were put in poffeltion of Vienna.

All the accounts received from Spain continue to improve in favorable appearance. Letters have been received, of which the following are the mot compacting and the first factority afcertained, that King Jofephas retreated to Burgos. In the Caf-
