

FRENCH BULLETINS, OR PLAIN FACTS.

The French can best bear warm... Their nearly all had perished, thro' excess of cold... Their Ballons now say, the Russians they have beat!

THE ABSENT SOLDIER'S LAMENT.

Where slept these slaves when the deed was done? England hid victory, and France dismay? It makes me hate to look upon the sun...

POLICE.

QUEEN-SQUARE.—Thursday a Gentleman in Vere-street, Oxford-street, appeared before the Magistrate, to answer to a complaint preferred against him by a private soldier in the 1st Regiment of Foot Guards...

Yesterday R. Thorp, a private soldier in the second Tower Hamlets Militia, was taken off parade at the Barracks, Deptford, by the civil power, and carried before WILLIAM GOODHUE, Esq. the resident Magistrate...

UNION HALL.—Yesterday Edward Collins was charged by Mr. Carnegie, a Gentleman residing in the Kent-road, with attempting to pick his pocket of his watch. Mr. C. stated, that it was one of those who went on Wednesday evening to parake of the enlivening pleasures of Vauxhall...

PUBLIC-HOUSE.—Wednesday a pitched battle was fought in a field at Limehouse, between Scotland, a Lancashire man, and an Hibernian, named Riley, both excavators, for £10 a-side.

A pitched battle for a purse of guineas took place on Saturday last, near Margate, between Cropley of Oford, and Watkins, a coachman, from Oford.

Yesterday a curious bet against time, to a considerable amount, was decided, by a man attempting to run a chariot wheel, by hand, from Hyde-park Turnpike to Windsor, and back again, within eight hours.

Yesterday an Inquest was held at Ladbroke, on the body of a poor aged woman, who was seen lying in a field near Ladbroke, so long ago as from Saturday, then supposed to be drunk and asleep...

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.

YORK RACES, MONDAY, AUGUST 23. His Majesty's Plate of 1000s for all ages; four year olds, 100s. 4th. five yrs. 120s. six yrs. 150s. and seven yrs. 180s.—Four miles.

THE MARKETS.

SMITHFIELD, August 23. Beef 3s 2d to 6s 4d. Veal 7s 0d to 9s 0d. Mutton 5s 0d to 6d. Poultry 1s 0d to 1s 6d.

PRICES OF HAY AND STRAW IN SMITHFIELD. Hay 1s 0d to 1s 10s. New Clover 6s 0d to 7s 7d.

PRICES OF HAY AND STRAW. St. James's Market 4s 0d. Town Tallow 81s 0d. Clare Market 4s 0d. Yellow Russia 82s 0d.

PRICES OF HOPS IN THE BOROUGH MARKET. Kent 3s 0d to 7s 7d. Kent 2s 12s to 9s 0d. Sussex 2s 10s to 5s 7s to 10s 10s.

RAW HIDES. Best Hadders and Steers per Ordinary 2s. 0d. to 2s. 8d. (stone) 2s. 0d. to 2s. 4d.

PRICES OF TALLOW. St. James's Market 4s 0d. Town Tallow 81s 0d. Clare Market 4s 0d. Yellow Russia 82s 0d.

COAL-MARKET, August 23. Ships at Market 57 Newcastle 52s. 45s. 0d. to 52s. 0d. 14 Sunderland 10s. 45s. 0d. to 45s. 0d.

WHEAT, AUG. 23.—Wheat per load, 42s 0d. to 42s 10d. Barley, per qr. 6s. 0d. to 7s. 0d. Beans 7s. 0d. to 8s. 0d.

OXFORD, August 23.—The second best price of a bushel of Wheat was 17s. 9d. according to which price, and a due allowance made to the baker, the amine and price of bread are as follows...

CANTERBURY STOCK MARKET, AUG. 11.—Beef, 12s. 0d. to 12s. 6d. per score—Mutton, 5s. 0d. to 5s. 6d. per stone—Lamb, 5s. 0d. to 5s. 6d. per ditto—Veal, 6s. 0d. to 7s. 0d. per ditto.

AMHURD FAT STOCK MARKET, AUGUST 20.—Beef, per score, 3s. 0d. to 14s. 6d. Mutton, 5s. 0d. to 5s. 10d. per stone. Lamb, 5s. 0d. to 6s. 0d. per ditto. Beasts about 23s. Sheep 20s.

At the Lammas Fair at Leckworth, on Thursday night, there was a great show of sheep and lambs. The market was slow in opening, but it soon opened up and the sale was brisk and profitable.

Several fields of fine barley have been cut in Renfrewshire; the harvest, however, in general, is at some distance, and unless the unusually favourable weather continues, the out-topping will not commence these few weeks.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

Wool.—The uncertainty state of things with respect to America has lowered the prices of Norfolk and Southdown Wools; those however who stock the best wool sell near after the same price.

UNIVERSITY INTELLIGENCE.

Oxford, Aug. 23.—Tuesday, Mr. Williams, Baccalaureus Lectured on the text of New College; and on the same day Mr. Cyril Lippincott was admitted scholar of that Society.

Rev. Robert John Francis, M.A. to the Rectory of Kirby, Norfolk. Rev. George Hunt Rogers, to the Rectory of Hackwood with Wotton, Norfolk.

The University and King's College of Aberdeen, have conferred the degree of Doctor in Divinity upon the Rev. John Mackenzie, D.D., of New College; and the Rev. Alexander Downie, Minister of Leck-Ash.

The Associate (Anti-burgh) Congregation of Balloch, have given an unanimous Call to the Rev. Mr. James Thomson, late of Soanes, to be their Pastor.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE STAR.

Sir.—I grieved me very much to notice the account of the destructive fire at Messrs. HOLLAND'S and Son; and the more so, as it appears to have, in part, originated through the inadvertency of the man throwing water upon it, which is pretty generally known to cause any flame, proceeding from substances of a fat, oily, or spirituous nature, to spread or dilate itself with increasing fury.

BIRTH.

Wednesday, the Lady of Richard Tattershall, Esq. Grosvenor-place, of a son.

MARRIED.

Aug. 20, at York, Lieutenant-General the Hon. Henry Grey, of Felstead, Northamptonshire, to Miss De Vere, only daughter to Sir Cha. De Vere, Bart. of Indwell, Queen's Co. Co. Wick.

Aug. 23, H. Benall, Esq. of Tooty-street, surgeon, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of W. Hawes, Esq. of same place, surgeon. Aug. 24, G. C. R. F. Cox, Esq. lawyer, to Miss Folker, only daughter of W. Folker, Esq. of this city.

DIED.

On the 24th inst. at Turnham-green, Mrs. Griffiths, widow of the late Dr. Griffiths.

THE COMMERCIAL-HALL WINE COMPANY.

ANY shopkeepers, London, beg leave to solicit the attention of the Nobility, Gentry, and Public in general, to their very low prices for the choicest Wines, genuine Spirituous Liqueurs, prime Bottled Porters, Ales and double Brown-Steers, for Ready Money only, which will be delivered to order, free of expense, to any part of the Kingdom, Est. of this city.

Choice old Port, of the Vintage of 1806, of the finest exquisite quality £180

Half Pipe #63, Quarter Pipe #30

Choice old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen, not crusted 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

Very fine old Port, warranted to have been 6 years in the Bottle, 18 to the Dozen 50 0

FAMILY BREWING.

BY THE KING'S ROYAL LETTERS PATENT. NEEDHAM, RAWLINS, and Co. responsible to their PORTABLE FAMILY BREWING MACHINE, which combines all the Utensils in ONE; is durable, compact, in its form; takes to pieces with ease, and is so constructed that its consumption of fuel is small, and its condensation the steam.

The method of using it is equally simple and certain. ANY PREVIOUS KNOWLEDGE OF BREWING, is not necessary. The method of using it is equally simple and certain. ANY PREVIOUS KNOWLEDGE OF BREWING, is not necessary.

DIRECTIONS FOR BREWING with the PORTABLE FAMILY BREWING MACHINE; and showing the Instructions for Judging of the Quality of Malt and Hops, and the Quantity of Brewing PORTER; ALE, TABLE ALE, and TABLE BEER. Sold by the Proprietors, Kingston-upon-Thames, and London.

NEEDHAM, RAWLINS, and Co. brew for Public Exports every Tuesday, in Skinner-street, London; and on the Sabbath Days, in St. James's-street, London.

GUESTION FIANE MEDICINE.

CASE 79.—To the Hon. the Right Hon. the Earl of Devon, Mr. HENRY PRATT, Builder, Clapham, Surrey, after being afflicted five months with the Rheumatic Gout, and after suffering very considerable expense, and obtaining every kind of medical assistance without relief—every part was affected and disabled by assisting himself, &c. by a course found himself much relieved that all pain ceased before he left Mr. Currie, and walked without assistance to Waltham, &c. had been confined to his way-beds, and slept soundly for the first time in many months.

Mr. HENRY PRATT, Builder, Clapham, Surrey, after being afflicted five months with the Rheumatic Gout, and after suffering very considerable expense, and obtaining every kind of medical assistance without relief—every part was affected and disabled by assisting himself, &c. by a course found himself much relieved that all pain ceased before he left Mr. Currie, and walked without assistance to Waltham, &c. had been confined to his way-beds, and slept soundly for the first time in many months.

Mr. HENRY PRATT, Builder, Clapham, Surrey, after being afflicted five months with the Rheumatic Gout, and after suffering very considerable expense, and obtaining every kind of medical assistance without relief—every part was affected and disabled by assisting himself, &c. by a course found himself much relieved that all pain ceased before he left Mr. Currie, and walked without assistance to Waltham, &c. had been confined to his way-beds, and slept soundly for the first time in many months.

CHALLENGE.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.

Messrs. Currie and Co. Surgeons, late in the Majesty's Service, challenge the whole world to prove any single instance where their Medicine and method of cure failed of the desired effect in any case of Rheumatism, or any other branch of their profession has not given the most successful results.