aged 35, Mi. James Couldrey, bookbinder, of St. Ebber's, in this city, Same day died, in the 70th vent of his age, Mr. Wm Ward, many years a respectable coal-merchant, in this city, whose has will be long lamented, and his memory defectionately cherished, by a large circle of relations and friends. Yesterday, at a Common Comeil of, this city, it was resolved to apply the sum of 700 guiness out of the city wounded of the British army, in the eyer-memorable, plorious, and decisive victory of Waterloo, on the 18th June, and a subscription was at the same time entered into by the Mayor and Corporation, individually, for the kiep purpose, and it is recommended to the cutterns at large to promote this handable undertaking. Tuesday last, the Geberal Quarter Sessions of the Peace for this county were holden at the Guildhalt, before John Arky, and Vigilland Composition, individually an espectable bench of magistrates. At these Sessions there was no prisoner for trial, but several causes of appeal, &c. were determined.

A subscription, is now on foot, in this city, for some well.

On Wednesday, Eliza White was committed to ou county gool, charged with uttering a base shilling a Stokee Charch, and with having a number of bas shillings in her possession.

On Friday, Henry Bolton and William Batts wer committed to the same gool, charged with beatting an wounding George Dumbleton, one of of weepers (Whichwood Forest, and resching a fridater there, i the custody of the said George Dumbleton.
