MONDAY, JANUARY 15, 1851.

The concluding part of Saturday in Consols for the account, was from 70 1/2 to 71. In consequence of the extent of the sale, the market has been somewhat quiet.

The following is an extract of a letter, dated Naples, December 21. Any one who was previously ignorant of the real character and genius of the Neapolitan nation, will recognize with difficulty the traces of the revolution which has reformed the Government.

On Saturday the despatch for Bengal, by the ship General Kyd, Cap. Nelmer, was closed at the East India-house, and delivered to the Purser.

On Wednesday last, at the Oxford County Sessions, Mr. Stratton and Mr. Peniston, proposed a Resolution to the Sheriff for the convening of a Meeting of the Freeholders of that County, in order to present a Petition to His Majesty, immediately drawn up, signed by all the Gentlemen present, and sent to the Sheriff, who has appointed Monday, the 22nd inst. for the Meeting, which will be held in the Town Hall.

A Meeting of the county of Chester took place on Friday, the 12th inst. at the residence of Lord Cholmondeley, Esq. and an amended Address by Lord Grosvenor. A scene of noisy uproar ensued, which prevented the supporters of either Address from being heard, except by the delay of the trial of the High Sheriff refused to obey the call, and hastily quitted the chair.

A question of some importance to the public at large respecting the return fare allowable to the drivers of hackney-coaches and chariots, has lately been agitated on the construction to be attached to the 56th of Geo. III. c. 159, &c. According to the construction put upon this statute, the return fare is to be the same as the outward fare.

On Saturday the 12th inst. the meeting of the Club of Malta continued, and it was announced that the orders of the Political Club had been communicated to him by the Ministry of the Government, and on this ground, the Secretary of that department was violently declaimed against.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

COURT OF KING'S BENCH, JANUARY 15.

Mr. Scarlett stated that this was an action in which the plaintiff sought to recover a compensation from the defendant, for a heavy loss which he had sustained by the contract of the party, who had been employed by the defendant to procure a cargo of brandies in 1814, defendant having received a model of brandy, and in so doing had also contracted for a cargo of brandy with transactions of his own conduct, and in 1816, and thereby subjecting it to duties and taxes, and a cargo originally costing the plaintiff nearly 12,000*l.* had ultimately produced him only 7,000*l.* and a fraction.

Mr. D'Israeli—Witness was formerly clerk to a barrister, and in 1814 was dispatched by him with a cargo of brandy to Hamburg, &c., and in 1815, he received from the defendant a bill of lading for a cargo of brandy, which he delivered to the plaintiff, who was entitled to the cargo, and in 1816, he received from the defendant a bill of lading for a cargo of brandy, which he delivered to the plaintiff, who was entitled to the cargo, and in 1816, he received from the defendant a bill of lading for a cargo of brandy, which he delivered to the plaintiff, who was entitled to the cargo.
