LATEST NEWS.

FRIDAY, APRIL 7, 1837.

In the House of Lords last night a vast number of petitions were presented, relating chiefly to Church-rates.

The report of the Royal Mint Bill was received, after a short discussion upon the slovenly manner in which the measure (which passed the House of Commons without observation) has been drawn. Lord BROUGHAM pointed out that the fourth clause of the bill, as sent from the Commons, gave the Treasury power to issue money without limitation, out of the Consolidated Fund, for the purchase of bullion—and, farther, that there was no provision in the bill for the payment into the Exchequer of any balance which, after the purchase of bullion, might remain in the hands of the Master of the Mint.

In the House of Commons, Sir H. HARDINGE gave notice, that it was his intention to take the sense of the House on a motion relative to the affairs of Spain, which would be to the effect, that an address be presented to HIS MAJESTY praying that HIS MAJESTY would not renew the Order in Council granting permission to HIS MAJESTY'S subjects to enlist in the service of the Queen of SPAIN, and that HIS MAJESTY would give directions that the marine forces should be employed only in such naval assistance to the Queen of SPAIN as HIS MAJESTY was by treaty bound to afford. Sir H. HARDINGE stated, that he would endeavour to bring forward this motion on Thursday next.

The report of the Committee of Supply on the Army Estimates was brought up, and on the vote for the payment of the salaries of the principal officers in the public departments, &c. being put, Mr. HUME moved that it be reduced by the sum of 6,282*l*., the amount of the salaries granted to the Commander-in-Chief and the Military Secretary. Mr. HUME'S motion was negatived by a large majority. The rest of the votes were then agreed to without discussion.

A new writ was ordered for the borough of Rochdale in the room of Mr. ENTWISLE, deceased.

THE OXFORD HERALD.

SATURDAY, APRIL 8.

LITTLE has occurred in Parliament since the re-assembling of the House of Commons, to interrupt the late uniform and tranquil state of public affairs. No interrogatories have been put respecting the late disaster in Spain; or the treasonable conspiracies denounced by Mr. O'CONNELL as flourishing among his Roman Catholic brethren of the Irish metropolis. A motion for a select committee upon the alleged grievances of three East India ship captains, on which Ministers were beaten—a debate upon the army estimates, upon which they were saved by the Conservative opposition from defeat, under the attacks of their own friends, COL. THOMPSON, MR. HUME, &c.—an announcement of a Ministerial Factory Bill, upon which Lord ASHLEY is pledged to engraft provisions conformable to his own just and benevolent views—these make up the Parliamentary work of the week.

It is imputed as a criminal remissness to the Conservative commoners, that they have not pressed explanations upon the subject of the disgrace suffered by the British arms in Spain, and the confessed extension of the treasonable and exterminating conspiracies in Ireland, but the answer given is satisfactory. It is believed by some that Ministers meditate a voluntary retreat on or about the 21st inst. and it is thought better not to complicate unnecessarily, by pledges, the unavoidable difficulties of an incoming administration.

There is no doubt, indeed, that the half official organs of the Cabinet openly speak of a probable resignation at the time mentioned, and whoever trusts to them acts wisely in withholding all delicate topics. We own, however, that we are not of the number of the believers in the possibility of a voluntary surrender of office by Whigs. What have they not done and suffered for the sake of place and salary, even while they had a pretence of character? and now that they have long "welcomed infamy," and "bade a long farewell to shame," how can any reasonable man suppose that less than a physical extrusion will separate them from the public purse? However the present political contest may end, the Whig party has been long finally extinguished. What was the Whig party exists at this moment merely as a superannuated and greatly despised corps of the Radical revolutionary host; and in any change it would be utterly obliterated. The Whigs, therefore, as we think, will give no opportunity for change which they can possibly obviate. A better reason for the forbearance of the Conservatives may be found in the consideration that the Irish treason, and the foreign blundering, are in no danger of being interrupted or retraced, and that it is better to wait until the crimes of the Whigs shall be fully ripe.

Let us take this opportunity of moderating, as far as our influence extends, a feeling which rapidly gains ground every where throughout Great Britain, and which we by no means condemn, but which, if indulged precipitately, may be productive of serious inconvenience: we mean the feeling that "the Roman Catholic Emancipation Bill," as it is called, (the Bill of 1829,) must be forthwith repealed.

At a late meeting at Kennington, where two or three thousand persons were assembled, a casual allusion to the necessity of the step excited such an enthusiastic emotion as has rarely been witnessed; and we have seen great numbers of letters from persons of high influence, and deserved influence among the people, declaring, that until all the Members of the Conservative Party shall concur in urging the repeal of that Bill, the Party never can be recomposed in its full vigour.

Now we go as far as any can in admitting that every argument in favour of the Roman Catholic Relief Bill has proved a downright fallacy; that every pretended "security" has been demonstrated to be worthless. We would be the last to deny that oaths have no obligatory force with Roman Catholics where the interests of their Church are concerned; and we shall not conceal our belief, that in almost any constituency of Great Britain, the man who should pledge himself to support a repeal of the Bill of 1829 would succeed against one declining the pledge.

Making all these admissions and acknowledgments, we must still firmly represent, that the time has not yet come. It is not enough that the misled supporters of the most unfortunate measure referred to are now convinced of their error—as we know the most distinguished, the wisest, and the best among them are—they want not only such proofs as shall convince themselves, but also proofs so striking as shall convince the public that they (the once mistaken) are now convinced.

If our apprehensions of the policy of the Popish Party have a just foundation, these proofs cannot be distant.—If we fear without reason, deliberation in acting upon our fears will guard us from error and the commission of injustice. We must, therefore, earnestly deprecate the bringing forward any proposition for the repeal of the Bill of 1829. The effect of doing so can only be to divide once more, and to weaken, the Conservative Party.

A MEETING of London Radicals was held on Monday night at "The Crown and Anchor" Tavern in the strand. The motto under which the mob collected, was one which we suspect would not invite many Englishmen—"DEMOCRACY OR DESPOTISM." This is an alternative as little suited to the palate of an Englishman as a Gallo-Russian dinner, spoken of by Sir N. Wraxall, where every thing was either "all garlic, vinegar," or all "fat and fish oil," or that other antithesis of horrors, "the frying-pan and the fire," or "the devil and the deep sea." It is thus, however, that stupid and ignorant men are manufactured into conspirators and traitors—they are taught to think that whatever is not democracy is despotism, and implicitly believing, they contrive against the public peace, and are hanged by due course of law. If we could trace the history of all the fellow-sufferers of DESPARD and THISTLEWOOD, we have no doubt that we should find all ascribing their ruin, as some have done expressly, to the influence of some fallacious, but insidious cant of this kind. So far from there being any necessary opposition between "democracy and despotism," they stand in the closest of all relations—the relation of parent and child—for democracy ever begets despotism, and they have but one and the same savage, selfish, and vindictive temper—the just contrast is not between democracy and despotism, but between either and a constitutional and legal government. At the Crown and Anchor Meeting "They talked what fools call treason all the night." For instance, one man said a monarch was an obsolete incumbrance to good government, and a fellow named LOVETT, a still more aspiring traitor, broadly stated, that the necessity of disencumbering the Constitution of the monarchical branch must now be manifest. Sir WILLIAM MOLESWORTH, Mr. WHITTLE HARVEY, and others of the Ministerial party, were present, applauding, and were infinitely more guilty men than the wretched blockheads whose organs gave utterance to the treason.

By the way, the cause of reform is in danger of losing an important champion in the person of Mr. GREENACRE, the gentleman who confesses if he did not kill, at least to have dismembered, the poor woman, a part of whose remains were found some time since in the Edgeware Road. Mr. GREENACRE has been a writer in Carlisle's, and most of the other liberal journals, but through life, as the phrase is, "an active and consistent reformer."

THE Revenue Accounts up to the 5th inst. have been made public. There has been a considerable increase upon the last year as compared with the year preceding—about TWO MILLIONS AND A QUARTER—but the decline within the quarter has been alarming; a falling off in the last quarter, as compared with the quarter immediately preceding, of nearly THREE MILLIONS, and of MORE THAN FOUR MILLIONS as compared with the quarter ending Oct. 10, 1836. Such are the financial triumphs of Mr. SPRING RICE.

AT the Easter Vestries, the faithful Church party has been generally successful. In those strong-holds of radicalism and dissent, Ipswich and Nottingham, and much nearer home, at Banbury, the Church party has had brilliant victories.

THE French Ministry declared itself dissolved on Saturday last. It was expected that the Cabinet would be reconstructed pretty much from the old materials, excluding M. GUIZOT, and bringing in MARSHAL SOULT.

There is no Spanish news of any interest. Don Sebastian visited Irun, on the French frontier, on the 1st inst. when a French force was ordered down to observe his motions; he, however, retired southward to Tolosa, leaving a cordon of 5,000 men, extending from Irun to Oyarzun, obviously to watch the movements of the British Legion, which at San Sebastian is not more than six miles from Oyarzun.

He was educated at Winchester, and thence elected as a Founder's kin to a Fellowship of New College, of which Society he was matriculated April 21, 1761, being then in his 17th year. In 1768, (Oct. 27,) he proceeded to the Degree of B.C.L., and to that of D.C.L. June 5, 1776, in which year he resigned his Fellowship, having received the Living of Whittingham, in Norfolk; and we believe he soon after married Grace, sister of Lord Castlecoote, by whom he had a large family, and who died in 1823. Dr. Bathurst was successively appointed to a Canonry of Christ Church, to a Prebendal Stall at Durham, and finally, in 1805, on the translation of Dr. Sutton to Canterbury, was consecrated Bishop of Norwich. His Lordship published some few single sermons; two of his charges, in 1806 and 1815; and a Letter to the late Mr. Wilberforce, on Christianity and Politics, how far they are reconcileable; this, we believe, was his last publication, and is dated 1818.

The Bishop of Lichfield is so greatly recovered from his late indisposition as to contemplate attending his Parliamentary duty by the middle of this month.

Those who particularly distinguished themselves at these examinations were Charles Hawkins, Thomas H. Gill, John William Knott, Henry Keary, Frederick Rendall, and James Yates, the last three in mathematics. BIRTH.—March 23, at Burton Crescent, London, the Lady of A. Amos, Esq. Recorder of this city, of a daughter.

Lately died, at Barton Lodge, in her 100th year, Mary, relict of George Birch, Esq. of St. Leonard's-hill, Berks.

On the 29th ult. died, at Berkeley, Gloucestershire, aged 38, Mrs. Parslow, daughter of Mrs. Slatter, of Holywell-street, in this city.

On the 21st ult. died, at Inverness, Sarah, wife of Major Maclean, 72nd Highlanders.

On Thursday se'nnight died, at Suffolk Villa, Cheltenham, Miss Bricknell, of Evenlode, Worcestershire, and formerly of this city.

Same day died, at Hanley, near Edinburgh, in the 27th year of her age, Augusta, wife of James Moncrieffe Melville, Esq. and youngest daughter of the late Vice-Admiral Lechmere, of Steeple Aston, in this county.

Same day died, aged 56, Mr. J. Bolland, last maker, of St. Peter-in-the-East, in this city.

On Saturday last died, after a long illness, Joseph Heath, Esq. of Mill End, Bucks, and brother to Mrs. Allin, of Littlemoor, near this city, leaving a widow and large family to lament their loss.

On Monday last died, aged two years, Richard Samuel, youngest child of Mr. D. N. Margetts, of St. Ebbe's, in this city.

Same day died, to the deep regret of his family and friends, aged 30, William, only son of Mr. Sare, of Edgcott, Bucks.

On Tuesday last died, at Richmond, twelve days after the birth of a daughter, still-born, Sarah, wife of Benjamin Blyth, Doc. Mus. in the 41st year of her age.

On Wednesday last died, at Summer Town, in the 48th year of his age, Mr. Samuel Shepherd Folker, son-in-law of the late J. W. Thorp, Esq. of this city.

On Thursday last died, aged 18, after an illness of three years from injuries he sustained from falling from a tree, James, son of Mrs. Davis, of St. Aldate's.

We are requested to state, that the name of John Coles, which appears in the Ballot Petition, is neither Mr. John Coles, sen. nor junior, of Magdalen-street. We are requested to mention also, that Mr. James Paxton, the surgeon, did neither sign, nor authorise any person to sign his name to the Ballot Petition.

We are requested by a Correspondent to state, that the Church Missionary Association at Burford was instituted by the late Minister, the Rev. Mr. Missing, and has uniformly been supported, and its anniversaries attended, by Members of the Church of England. Its receipts during the last year were £56 16s. 5d. a sum sufficient to shew that it had obtained a respectable degree of support, and was no secret or private concern. The consent of the Master of the School had been previously obtained for holding the meeting in the School-room, and there was no intention of irregularity in not having asked the permission of the Trustees.

Mr. and Lady Elizabeth Harcourt gave a grand dinner in Hanover-square, London, on Monday evening, to the Russian Ambassador and Colonel and Countess Pozzo di Borgo, Lord and Lady Norreys, and a select party. Her Ladyship had afterwards a concertante, at which some of the foreign musical artistes assisted.

An intelligent friend has sent us, although at so late an hour as to render their insertion altogether impracticable, some admirable remarks upon the letter from Mr. Blamire, Mr. Butler, and Mr. Jones, the three Tithe Commissioners, to Mr. Spring Rice, recommending a general mapping of all the parishes in England, such maps to be, of course, executed under the authority and direction of the commissioners, and at the expense of whom, do you think, gentle reader? of the landowners of the country! The Whitehaven Packet, a Conservative paper of great talent, is justly severe upon what it terms "one of the most rascally jobs ever counselled by a modern Whig," and asserts, that the ultimate cost of this survey, should it take place, to the county of Cumberland alone, will be equal to 100,000*l*. As every landowner in this country is interested in this matter, we content ourselves for the present with calling their attention to the fact, that such a job is in agitation, reminding them, that unless they successfully resist its introduction, they will suffer, and pretty severely to, in their pockets, for this proposed exemplification of Whig-jobbery.

INQUESTS BEFORE MR. CECIL, CORONER.—On Saturday, the 1st. instant, at the Plasterer's Arms, in St. Clement's parish, on view of the body of a man unknown, apparently about 50 years of age, who died suddenly that afternoon, on Headington Hill. "Verdict, died by the visitation of God." The deceased has not been identified.—On Wednesday last, at the Abingdon House, St. Aldate's parish, on view of the body of Charles Beer, aged 21. It appeared by the evidence, that on the preceding evening the deceased had drunk a considerable quantity of beer in a very short space of time, that he went out of the public house, and as soon as he got to the street he fell down and almost instantly expired.—Mr. Hitchings, surgeon, who attended him, was of opinion that he died of apoplexy, and the jury returned a verdict to that effect. There can be little doubt that the quantity of beer drank, and the shortness of time in drinking it, produced the apoplexy.

On Tuesday, the 28th ult. a coroner's inquest was held at Merton, in this county, on view of the body of Maria Collett, an old woman of the parish of Charlton-on-Otmoor, who was found drowned in a brook which divides the parishes. She had gone to visit a relation near Aylesbury, and was returning to her home, at Fencot, on the preceding Friday, and was seen to pass through Merton late in the evening. It is supposed that in going through a field she mistook her path, and fell into the water. Verdict, "Found drowned."

CITY POLICE OFFICE.—Monday, before the Mayor, Mary Ann Rose committed to the Sessions, charged with stealing a silver spoon, the property of Mr. Trafford; Edward Crosbie, committed to the Sessions, charged with stealing a hat, the property of Mr. Davis.—Tuesday, Joseph Dorrell was fined 5s. for being drunk and riotous, and held to bail to keep the peace for 12 months; Mary Ann Dorrell, wife of the above, was fined 20s. and costs, for behaving indecently in the streets.—Wednesday, George Smith, was fined 40s. and costs, for stealing a dog, the property of S. Wenman.

FAIRS.—Monday, Warwick.—Tuesday, Thatcham.—Thursday, Cheltenham.

At Oxford Market, on Saturday last, Wheat sold from £13 0s. to £14 0s. per load.—Barley, 27s. 0d. to 35s. 0d. —Oats, 21s. 6d. to 27s. 0d.—Beans, 34s. 0d. to 45s. 0d. —Peas, 40s. 0d. per quarter.

THAME.

ELECTION OF GUARDIANS, THURSDAY, MARCH 30.—An attempt has been made to displace the old guardians for Thame, for no other apparent reason than because they had done their duty conscientiously. However, charges were brought against them, or rather made against them by insinuations, all of which were completely refuted, and proved to be falsehoods by Mr. William Wall, who fully exposed the whole system that had been had recourse to, by the individual who was the great moving cause in this affair. It terminated as it should have done, by the triumphant return of the old guardians. The numbers of rate payers stood on the poll thus:—

Mr. Wall	162	Mr. B. Parsons	47
Mr. Badcock	162	Mr. Winslow	46
Mr. King	157	Mr. T. Howlett	2
Mr. G. Lee	51	Mr. Bailey	0

Showing how well the inhabitants of Thame appreciated the merits of those who have so ably represented the parish at the Board of Guardians.

BANBURY.

On Thursday last, the annual election took place of guardians of the poor for the Banbury Union. We have not yet been able to procure the returns for the whole of the Union; but the following are the appointments which we have ascertained:—Banbury, Messrs. Samuel Beesley, William Bigg, Jabez Stutterd, and Richard Goffe; Chipping-Warden, Mr. William Wilson; Neithrop, Messrs. William Walford, and Richard Potter; Wardington, Mr. John Campion; Warkworth, Mr. Charles Brickwell; Alkerton, Mr. W. E. Boyes; Broughton, Mr. J. W. Page; Drayton, Mr. W. French; Horaton, Mr. R. C. Wilcox; Ratley, Mr. J. Harlage; Shenington, Mr. W. Harrison; Sibford Ferris, Mr. Jesse Colegrave; Sibford Gower, Mr. J. Legge; Clattercote, Mr. W. Hadland; Claydon, Mr. R. Adkins; Cropredy, Mr. J. Eagles; North Newington, Mr. J. M. Greaves; Prescote, Mr. Joshua Biddle; Adderbury East, Mr. W. Gardner; Barford St. John, Mr. W. Austin; Barford St. Michael, Mr. Joseph Lovedrea; Bloxham, George Warriner, Esq. and Mr. W. Beesley; Bodicote, Mr. James Gardner; Hook-Norton, Mr. John Bury, and Mr. S. Godson.

DEFEAT OF THE OPPOSITION TO A CHURCH-RATE.—A meeting was held, pursuant to public notice, in the vestry room of the Church at Banbury on Saturday last, "to examine the Churchwardens' accounts, grant an assessment, and choose Churchwardens."—Mr. Edward Railton, the Vicar's Churchwarden, having been called to the chair, the Rev. J. R. Rushton signified the re-appointment of Mr. Railton as Vicar's Churchwarden; and Messrs. William Fairbrother, Thomas Golby, John Brownsill, and Samuel Hawkes, were re-elected Churchwardens.—The meeting then proceeded to the examination of the accounts, which were duly passed. Thus far the business of the meeting had gone forward without any opposition or debate worth notice. With respect, however, to the proposition for a Rate for the ensuing year it was different. Certain opponents of the Church Establishment had been busily employed the evening before the meeting in an endeavour to "get up the steam," by circulating handbills and copies of the Anti-Church-rate speech of a Doctor Joynes.—Accordingly, upon its being moved by Mr. John Councer, and seconded by Mr. Henry Pratt, "that a Rate or assessment at twopence in the pound be granted for the ensuing year," an amendment was moved by Mr. Francillon, and seconded by Mr. J. Stutterd, "that this meeting be now adjourned til after the close of the present session of Parliament." A show of hands took place; and, under the impression that it was against the Rate, Mr James Hill demanded a poll: ultimately, the Chairman proceeded to take the votes of the Ratepayers present at the meeting seriatim; and the result was, for the Rate, 70; against, 64; majority for the Rate, six! Mr. William Bigg, druggist, then came forward, and demanded a poll, forsooth!—Desirous of obtaining legal advice on the subject, the Chairman adjourned the meeting till Monday. He then announced, that, in the opinion of his legal advisers, the poll taken on Saturday was decisive; and, accordingly, he declared the Rate to be duly carried, and dissolved the meeting.—In acting thus, the Chairman was not only right in law, but he undoubtedly exhibited a wise and christian regard for the peace and good neighbourhood of the parish. Nevertheless, had he proceeded with a poll of the whole of the Ratepayers, there cannot be a doubt that the triumph of the cause of the Establishment would have been a glorious one. The attendance of Churchmen at the adjourned meeting on Monday was most gratifying for its numbers and respectability; and all were eager to testify by their votes, that, differ in opinion as they may, and as they undoubtedly do with respect to general politics, they are, one and all, determined to support the just claims of that Church, to whose bosom they were received in infancy, whose services and ordinances they love to frequent in life, and whose consolations they desire to enjoy at the hour of death.

The annual meeting of the Banbury and North Oxfordshire Church Missionary Association was held in the National School at Banbury on Wednesday evening. The Rev. J. R. Rushton having taken the chair, commenced the proceedings of the evening with prayer. The Rev. C. A. Heurtley of Wardington, one of the Secretaries of the Association, was then called upon to read his report, which announced no material increase or decrease in the receipts of the Association. The meeting was afterwards addressed (in moving resolutions) by the Rev. J. Jordan of Somerton, the Rev.—Hanna (deputed from the Parent Society, and formerly resident in Jamaica), the Rev. G. Browne, of Kidlington, and the Rev. H. D. Harington of South Newington: and resolutions were seconded by Mr. J. G. Rusher, Mr. Faulkner, and Mr. T. Strange.—The collection at the door amounted to £3. 4s. 10½d.

MANAGERS AT THE SAVINGS BANK.—April 6, Rev. A. Bayley; April 13, Rev. F. Clerke.

Prices at our Market the same as last week.

ABINGDON.

On Monday last was married, at St. Helen's Church, Mr. Coxeter, of this town, hardwareman, to Miss Priscilla Baker, of Northcourt.

On Tuesday last was married, at Saint Peter-le-Bailey Church, Oxford, by licence, Mr. George Cozens Latham, grocer, of this borough, to Miss Smith, of the former place.

The late William Tomkins, Esq. of this town, who died in January last, by his will, gave to John Tomkins, Esq. Mr. Wm. Ballard, and Mr. James Collier, Deacons of the Baptist Church, in this town, of which the deceased was a zealous supporter, the sum of £50, to be by them distributed among such followers of that Church as should be deemed needy and deserving. The intention of this pious and exemplary gentleman has been carried into effect, 72 persons having, with grateful feelings, received the benefit of the donation.

On Saturday evening se'nnight, between eight and nine o'clock, as Cheer, the postman between Abingdon and Kingston, was returning to the former place, he met with a cart, and being tired, requested the driver to give him a lift, which he did. When the cart arrived at a place called Larkallbridge, near Abingdon, Cheer, as it is supposed, being drowsy, unfortunately fell from the cart, one of the wheels of which went over one of his thighs. The poor man, from excessive agony, was rendered quite insensible. He was immediately taken into the cart and conveyed home, where surgical aid was immediately obtained. On examination, it was discovered that the small bone of one of his legs was broken, and that he was otherwise severely bruised. He now lies in great agony, but it is hoped that amputation will not be necessary.

As Mr. Walker, of Abingdon, surgeon, was returning home in the afternoon of Monday last from visiting his patients, his horse made a false step and fell, throwing Mr. W. with great violence, by which his collar-bone sustained a slight fracture. We are happy, however, to learn, that he is now able to resume his professional duties.

MELANCHOLY OCCURRENCE.—In the afternoon of Monday last, as Mr. John Whitern, of Northcourt, near this place, was proceeding through the Vineyard on his way home, he was suddenly seized with a fit (to which he was subject) and fell into a ditch close to the Red Lion public-house, in which there was a considerable quantity of mud. Shortly after, some persons coming to the spot, found the unfortunate man lying on his face in the ditch, and, upon taking him out, it was discovered that life was not quite extinct. He was immediately conveyed into the public-house above-mentioned, where Mr. Box, surgeon, was in attendance, and shortly after removed to his home, where he survived but a short time.—The following day an inquest was held on the body, before Mr. Edward Cowcher, coroner, when evidence to the above effect being adduced, the jury returned a verdict of "Accidental death."

At Abingdon Market, on Monday last, Wheat sold from 48s. 0d. to 58s. 0d.; Beans, from 34s. 0d. to 42s. 0d.; Peas, from 35s. 0d. to 46s. 0d.; Barley, from 26s. 0d. to 34s. 0d.; Oats, from 22s. 0d. to 28s. 0d. per quarter.—Flour, from —s. 0d. to —s. 0d. per sack.—Bread, half-peck (household) 1s. 3d. —Butter, 1s. 2d. per pound.—Eggs, 19 to 23 for 1s.

COUNTY OF OXFORD.

The Easter Quarter Sessions of the Peace for this County commenced on Tuesday last, William Henry Ashhurst, Esq. presiding as Chairman, and the following Magistrates being also in attendance in the course of the day:—The Right Hon. Francis Almeric Lord Churchill, the Hon. Thomas Parker, the Hon. Francis George Spencer, Sir Henry John Lambert, Bart. the Rev. the Vice-Chancellor of the University of Oxford, Robert Marsham, Esq. D.C.L. Joseph Phillimore, Esq. D.C.L. Joseph Warner Henley, Esq. Thomas Augustus Wolstenholme Parker, Esq. Charlas Cottrell Dormer, Esq. Walter Strickland Jun. Esq. Thomas Stonor, Esq. Charles John Baillie Hamilton, Esq. William Henry Ashhurst, jun. Esq. The Rev. Andrew Hughes Matthews, The Rev. Charles Edmund Keene, the Rev. Richard Pretyman, The Rev. George Chetwode, the Rev. Richard Goddard, and the Rev. Robert Phillimore.

The Chairman alluded, in his charge to the Grand Jury, to the prize-fights which have recently taken place at a spot near to Woodstock, and expressed the determination of the County Magistrates to prevent a recurrence of these disgraceful scenes.

The Hon. Philip Sydney Pierrepont qualified as a Justice of the Peace for Oxon, subscribed the prescribed oaths of office, and took his seat on the Bench.

No case of Appeal came on, and the Bench, after disposing of the bastardy cases, proceeded to try the following prisoners:—

Thomas Gowan, for stealing twenty ash-poles, the property of Miss Elizabeth Dorothy Biscoe, of Holton.—Three weeks' close confinement in the House of Correction.

Adam Patey, for stealing three half-pecks of potatoes, the property of John Saunders, of Cullam.—One month's close confinement.

Martha Faulkner, for stealing a cotton gown, the property of Susannah Coppin, of Wilcot.—One month's confinement.

George Dutfield, for stealing six bushels of flint stone, the property of Richard Taylor of Pishill.—One month's close confinement.

Edward Turner, Thomas Holyfield, and Joseph Jones, for stealing 150 pounds-weight of maple, thorn and nut-wood, the property of Lord Churchill.—Turner and Holyfield, fourteen days'; and Jones three weeks' close confinement.

Robert Cakebread and John Cakebread, for stealing nine fowls, the property of William Potter, of Bloxham.—Two months' confinement, one fortnight of which period to be solitary.

Reuben Wiggins, for stealing a piece of leather, the property of John Honor Parker, of Bicester.—One month's confinement, and to be once whipped.

John Green, for stealing four gallons and one quartern of gin, the property of William Clisby, of Thame,—Seven years' transportation.

John Clements, indicted for stealing a bushel and a half of potatoes, the property of Joseph Chapman, of Holton, found not guilty.

James Wait, for assaulting John Trafford, constable of Kirtlington, in the execution of his duty.—Six months' imprisonment, and at the end of that period to enter into his own recognizance in £10 to keep the peace for a twelve-month.

We understood that the designs delivered in by architects for the proposed new County Hall and Courts of Justice were very numerous, and many of them possessing the highest merit in arrangement and pictorial execution. No decision, however, upon the plans to be adopted will be come to by the Magistrates at present.

In a few days will be published,
