

MENT

JAPAN CONSULATE IN A TENT

United States marines putting up a tent, which is used in ruined Yokohama as the United States Consulate. It stands amid the remains of the Standard Oil Company's offices.

IN PINK AND GREEN

This charming evening gown, which is one of Lucile's new creations, is in shot pink taffeta and is prettily trimmed with green piping and roses.—(Daily Mirror photograph.)

ater of Captain Hill, Perthshire, and S. G. Craun, Black Watch Brigade.

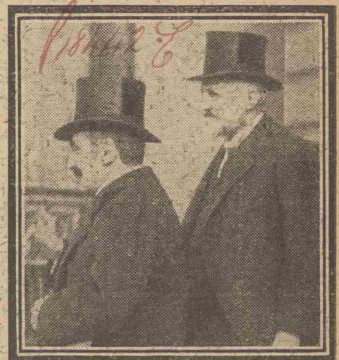

itors, wearing sandals, on the newly-restored floor. ter House of Westminster Abbey now don sandals red to full decorative beauty.—(Daily Mirror.)

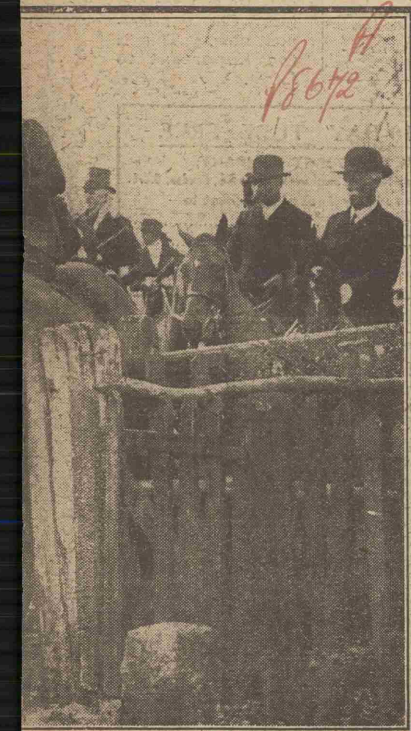

TAXI TRAGEDY INQUEST.—George William Iggulden (right), a portrait painter, in court at Hammersmith yesterday, when a coroner's jury returned a verdict of Wilful murder against him at the inquest on Mrs. Ethel Eliza Howard (inset), found dead in a taxi driven by Charles Green (also inset).

Mr. J. Widger, who rode his own horse, Wild Man, from Borneo, to victory in the Grand National of 1898, has died.

HOPING FOR HELP.—Dr. Kallay (left), the Hungarian Finance Minister, who is in London to negotiate for a loan to Hungary, leaving the Legation with Count Szapary, the Hungarian Minister.

f York, behind whom is Lady Lowther, leading the Pitchley Hunt at Fox Hall Inn.

SIR FRANK BENSON FILMED.—Sir Frank Benson (holding pen) in the title-role of "Becket," a dramatic historical film, to be shown during British film week.

HEROES OF LOST SHIP.—Second Officer Hall (left) and Boatswain Sumner, of the foundered ship Trevesa, both commended by Chief Officer Smith yesterday at the Board of Trade inquiry.