HUMOROUS STORIES. USE OF THE BIG "D". TO THE EDITOR OF THE "TORQUAY TIMES". Sir,—The Torquay Times was a real treat last week. The series of illustrations in the "D" column, as narrated by Mr. W. J. McKean to his fellow members of the Rotary Club, was rich and rare, and the illustrations proved a source of delight to thousands of readers.

THE PAVILION LICENSE APPLICATION. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "TORQUAY TIMES". Sir,—The application for a license for the Pavilion, is not made by the Town Clerk, but by the Manager of the Pavilion. Does that mean that the Council have not given their consent to the application being made? If not as a Committee of the Council, how can they sanction the application being made by a public servant, who represents the Council?
