

Illustrated Catalogue of

PIANOS

Representing the Best Value in the Trade. Post Free.

Cash 25 Guineas or easy terms from 21/ monthly.

G. S. WHITING

32 ABINGTON ST., NORTHAMPTON.

The Midland

AND BUCKS. WEEKLY NEWS

With which is incorporated the Stony Stratford Times.

Circulating in Buckinghamshire, Bedfordshire, Northamptonshire, and Oxfordshire.

No. 1378.

FRIDAY, 12 AUGUST, 1927.

BY POST: SINGLE COPY 2d. PER QUARTER 2s.

PRICE 1 1/2d

MOTOR CAR DEPOT

MIDLAND AUTOMOBILE & ENGINEERING Co.

OLD STRATFORD, STONY STRATFORD.

AUGUST CAMPS.

WOLVERTON BOY SCOUTS.

The Wolverton Troop of Boy Scouts spent their August Bank Holiday week under canvas at Conway. They numbered 24 and left Wolverton at midnight on Friday and the special train from the district for North Wales. This was a new experience for the majority of the boys who certainly appreciated the extra day it gave them for their camp. The Troop, under the charge of S.M. W. J. Parker, arrived at the camp-site at about 6 a.m. and were greeted by a shower of rain.

Camp was pitched within view of the sea, with the Great Orme on the right and Penmaenbach on the left. The first few hours proved to be very interesting and exciting for two of the tents and one bungalow were blown down. After this extra precaution was made to make them secure, when they were re-erected. The boys took an early opportunity of visiting Conway and turned in to sleep that evening usually at 7.30 in the mornings and breakfast was served at 8 o'clock. The mornings were spent in A.S.M. duties and the evenings were made to be interesting by the band. Organized bathing parties were made to Llandudno and a variety of ten went to Snowdon. On Thursday evening the whole of the Troop, together with six other troops of the Southport Troop, who were camping close by, went for a charabanc ride through the Valley, which proved a very nice trip.

On Friday evening the Captain of the 3rd Coventry Coy. of the 1st Battalion, The Buffs, who were camping in the vicinity of the "camp fire" and the camp, and the war, used for a large number of troops. During the holiday week there were five other Boy Scout Troops camped here, and these included the Southport, Wrexham, and Luton units. The Southport Troop was the Wolverton Troop's nearest neighbour, and it is natural many new friendships were formed among the leaders.

The camp was visited by the District Commissioner for Conway on Wednesday, and he expressed his approval of the excellent condition of the Troop and the general arrangements which reflected great credit on S.M. Parker's leadership. The District Commissioner W. Holloway and Mrs. Holloway were present in the camp spending the holiday with the Troop.

The boys were disappointed when the time came for the departure for home on Saturday morning. The camp was as bright and cheerful as at 4.45. After breakfast the tents were struck and kits made by the departure train. The departure train left at 7.40, Wolverton being reached at about 10.15.

All the boys looked brown, a fact due to the good weather experienced and the sea breeze which favoured the camp most of the time.

WOLVERTON C.L.B. (K.R.R. CADETS).

The Wolverton Church Lads' Brigade spent their August holiday at Brighton. This was not the first occasion the Wolverton Camp had been held in this village, although it was the first to the present members. In years prior to the war, Brighton was a favoured spot for several annual training camps of the Oxford Regiment, of which the Company forms part. Of late years the Wolverton unit has not joined with the regiment upon the grounds of excesses, and have established their own independent camps in other parts of the country. Whether the break has been helpful it is difficult to say, but nevertheless the lads have always spent very enjoyable holidays in their own small coterie.

Lieut. Ridge had supervision of the camp which was taken over by S.M. George, C.M. George, and S.M. H. Fratt. There were 16 lads who took part, and they left Wolverton on Friday afternoon and arrived at their camping site in the evening. The kit and camping gear, and also the kit, was conveyed from Brighton to Redditch by bus.

The camp was essentially a holiday one and no training was carried out. Unnecessary duties were dispensed with and only such work as was necessary for the well-being of the lads and the good conduct of the camp were carried out. Three lads were left off each day for duty which included the cooking, the lads having been instructed in this art at their previous camp at Slapton and elsewhere.

Bentley was sounded at 6.30 and tents were cleaned up before breakfast at 8 o'clock. Bathing parties and camp duties occupied the morning until dinner time. Afterwards the lads were free to go where they wished until "lights out" at 10.30. Tea was served at 4.30.

A church parade to the Parish Church was held on Sunday morning.

On Wednesday afternoon, the Watford Secondary School, who were camping close by, challenged the Company at cricket. The match was played and also a return game the following morning. Only the Thursday match scores are available, and these were as follows:—

Wolverton C.L.B. (4th Innings)—Sgt. Underwood 6, Pte. Marshall 3, Sgt. Brock 5, C.S.M. Berridge 6, Pte. Henslow 8, Pte. Underwood 1, Sgt. Lockley 4, Sgt. Fratt 7, Pte.

(Continued in next column.)

WEDDING.

HOWES-BARNARD.

A very pretty wedding was that which took place on Saturday last at St. George the Martyr's Church, the contracting parties being Miss Phyllis Mary, the only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Howes, late of Wolverton, and Mr. William John (Cordingley) Barnard, of Hamlope. The officiating clergyman was the Rev. E. Moxon Ellis, Rector of Newton Longville, and the Rev. B. W. Barrow.

The bride, who was given away by her Aunt, Miss Eshelwyn Barnes, wore a dress of ivory crepe silk and lace, with a veil and coronet of orange blossoms, and she carried a bouquet of white sweet williams and lilies. She was preceded by two bridesmaids, the Misses Eileen and Joyce Brett, and two flower girls, Misses Eileen and Joyce Brett, and two bridesmaids, the Misses Eileen and Joyce Brett, and two flower girls, Misses Eileen and Joyce Brett.

The groom, who was given away by his father, Mr. W. F. Harvey, A.R.C.S., wore a suit of dark blue cloth, and he carried a sword and a sword. The bride and groom were preceded by two bridesmaids, the Misses Eileen and Joyce Brett, and two flower girls, Misses Eileen and Joyce Brett.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. Moxon Ellis, Rector of Newton Longville, and the Rev. B. W. Barrow. The bride and groom were preceded by two bridesmaids, the Misses Eileen and Joyce Brett, and two flower girls, Misses Eileen and Joyce Brett.

The reception was held at the Church Institute, attended by about 70 guests. The happy couple were the recipients of many handsome and useful presents. The honeymoon is being spent in Somerset and Devon in a motor tour.

Harris 0, Pte. C. Townsend 0, Pte. Bush not out 2, extras 2 total 25.

Watford School: C. J. Gilbert 7, Perry 16, Balderston 11, Ward 0, Tofield 5, Hayes 20, Old 10, Alford 0, Johnson 1, Timson not out 0, Gould 2, extras 9, total 52.

Wolverton C.L.B. (2nd Innings): Pte. Henson 1, H. Townsend 3, Pte. McMillan 12, Sgt. Fratt 8, Sgt. Lockley 0, Sgt. Underwood 2, Pte. Berridge 0, Pte. C. Townsend 5, Pte. Bush 0, C.S.M. Berridge 0, Pte. Harris not out 2, extras 2 total 25.

On Friday, the Wolverton lads, seeking revenge for their Thursday's defeat, challenged the Watford football, and this produced a drawn game of two goals each.

In the evening, for those who preferred food, whilst camping expenses were 1s. 6d. each for the week. Thus the lads were able to spend a happy holiday by the sea at the best cost of 10/- each.

2ND. STONY STRATFORD BOY SCOUTS.

The 2nd Stony Stratford Troop of Boy Scouts spent an enjoyable eight days' camp at Rhyd in delightful surroundings. The Troop was under the charge of A.S.M. W. Fancott, assisted by A.S.M. Tustain. The majority of the lads travelled by the North Wales "special" which left Wolverton at Friday midnight and upon arrival at the camping site, on Saturday morning the tents were pitched within view of the sea and only two minutes' walk from the shore. Excellent arrangements were made for the camp and the daily routine was as follows:—

At 6 o'clock: lights out at 10.30. A.S.M. Tustain and Rover Southam were in charge of the food, which was very liberal in quantity and variety as well as quality.

The lads were charged the very moderate sum of 15/- per head for the 8 days they were under canvas. Other troops were camped close by and these included Troops from Leeds, Frodsham, and Wolverhampton, with whom the lads fraternized.

During the week excursions were made to Llandudno and Colwyn Bay, among other places and on Saturday night there was a night under canvas—"camp fire" was held and conducted. The camp was struck on Sunday morning last and the lads arrived home by the last train stopping at Wolverton that evening. There was fortunately no illness among the lads, but the ambulance bus was found useful for treatment of minor cuts and bruises.

One of the most successful of holiday camps, this one at Rhyd was due to the arrangements of the officers of the troop. They were commended by the District Commissioner for Flintshire, who visited the camp.

LONGEVITY AT STONY STRATFORD.

Stony Stratford as a town has many points of interest—its long and honoured history, its association with historical events of the past, its old buildings which have weathered the storms of very many years—yet there is one feature which has very seldom been commented upon, and that is the longevity of its inhabitants. For a place of its proportions this old Watling Street town requires some beating with its record of aged residents, many of whom have spent more than half a century of years there. For about a month past Mr. C. P. Woodard, J.P., has given himself the self imposed task of compiling a record of the names of the aged residents, and has been able to do so. With his customary thoroughness Mr. Woodard, who himself has entered the ranks of the septuagenarians by one year, interviewed these old residents and has even induced the ladies to impart the information of their ages! The gentlemen, we have no doubt, showed no reluctance in admitting their four score years, but were more probably rather proud of it.

To make the record more complete Mr. Woodard arranged a reunion of the aged to start with—and these met on Saturday afternoon and in the section of the entrance to the "Retreat" they faced the camera. One group of twelve had an average age of just under 80 years, and a second group of 20, an average age of just under 70 years. The number of the first miscellaneous group of 25 had an average age of about 20 years. Afterwards Mr. Woodard entertained his guests to a meal in the Public Hall. This unique party spent a happy time, and one that will be long remembered. All the members of the party were grateful to their host for his kindness and generosity, and thanks that were expressed by all were most warm and sincere.

There were present Messrs. Walter J. Crisp (age 83), William Hall (87), Thomas Kirby (65), Richard Matthews (65), Thomas Jones (65), Charles Johnson (84), James Tiffon (64), Chas. Smith (82), James Betts (82), William Baldwin (69), Ted Sear (60), George Taylor (63), George Benson (78), Robert French (77), James Tingey (77), John Marshall (76), Ernest Hee (76), Frank Loveless (75), and others. Mr. William Lovell, senior, of the Watling Street, (85) was unable to be present, the latter through being at business!

It is understood their turn may come later. It is believed that the two ladies in the town are somewhere about the age of 94 years.

In years to come, when Stony Stratford has progressed to the extent of advertising its attractions to the world, we may possibly read, "To live long, live at Stony Stratford."

VICAR REVEALS HIS BUDGET.

Under the initials "A. J. M." which are those of the Vicar of Stony Stratford (Rev. A. J. Moxon), formerly Vicar of Wolverton, the following interesting and interesting article appears in the Fourth Stratford Parish Magazine, under the title of "Mind Your Own Business."

"I trust that this title will secure a fair and impartial study of this short article. When I accepted this living the Churchwardens, in view of the fact that I was making a considerable sacrifice of income, agreed the living. Since I have realized the enormous amount of work and anxiety which the heavy load upon Mr. Martin's shoulders entails for this parish, specially for our chancelor of the exchequer Mr. Goodwin, I have not felt it possible to make any further claim upon these very strained resources. Now, in fairness to some very generous friends in the parish who are anxious to discharge what they regard as an obligation, and in view of the suggestion of our Finance Committee that some of the proceeds of an annual bazaar be devoted to the same object, I have decided (following the example of the Bishop of London) to submit my budget for consideration and criticism."

"Income: Ecclesiastical Commissioners, £200; Queen Anne's Bounty, £29 12/0; Easter offering, 1927, £31; fees, £15; rent, £25; total, £299 12/0.

"Expenses: Rates, £40; pensions (deducted at source), £25; dilapidations (deducted at source), £25; servants' board and wages, £10; coal, oil, lighting, £50; total, £200.

"This leaves a balance of £99 per week, which is the whole amount available for my wife and myself for food, clothing, travel, holidays, sickness, charities, upkeep of house, garden, and all other expenses, postage, a heavy sum, and is far less than the parish. The above figures speak for themselves. My predecessor, who was a layman, and a most efficient one, told me frankly that he was £60 or £70 per week in excess of his outgoings, therefore, that but for the kindness and consideration of my bank manager I could not pay my tradesmen's bills. Be the vicar."

(Continued in next column.)

DEATH OF MRS. D. J. THOMAS.

It was with profound regret that the parishioners of Holy Trinity Church, Wolverton, and many other local residents, heard the news of the bereavement sustained by the Vicar of Holy Trinity, the Rev. D. J. Thomas, O.B.E., by the death of his wife, Mrs. Lalah Thomas, which occurred on Saturday afternoon last. The deceased lady, who was 82 years of age and suffered ill health for some years past, and it was with the hope that a change of environment would prove beneficial to her that the Rev. D. J. Thomas gave up his appointment in London for the living of Wolverton. Since the Rev. and Mrs. Thomas came to Holy Trinity almost two years ago, Mrs. Thomas had been under medical care of Dr. H. Holgood, upon whose advice Dr. Riddoch, an eminent London specialist, was called in, but he was unable to relieve the anxious fears held by her husband and family concerning her health. Her death was a little unexpected, and she passed peacefully away in the presence of her husband. The Vicar was unable to take duty at Holy Trinity Church on Sunday, and in his absence the Rev. A. J. Moxon, Vicar of Fourth Stratford, officiated at Holy Communion in the early morning, whilst matins and evensong were conducted by the Rev. Canon Thomas, O.B.E., M.A., Principal of Chester Training College, the Vicar's youngest brother. Feeling references were made to the passing of the deceased lady at each of the two latter services. Canon Thomas will continue in the ministerial oversight of the parish, during the whole of the present month in the absence of the Vicar.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, the first portion of the burial service being conducted in Holy Trinity Church by Canon Thomas. There were many parishioners present, and the evensong of sympathy which the bereaved were profound and sincere. A full choir was present, and the organist, Mr. E. R. East, assisted by Mr. E. East, the mourners entered the Church, Mendelssohn's "O Rest in the Lord" and "The Lady Mary's Lullaby" were the services which took place at mid-day, the hymn "For all the Saints" was sung, and the 90th Psalm was chanted. At the close of the Nunc Dimittis, the choir preceded the coffin to the church entrance of the Church. The members of the choir then formed up on each side of the pathway of the Holy Trinity Church, and the service was borne between them to the waiting motor, which conveyed it to the Lady Mary's Cemetery for the interment. The family mourners consisted of the Rev. D. J. Thomas (husband), Miss Gladys Thomas (daughter), Mr. J. Owen Thomas, M.A., and Mrs. Thomas (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. Winton Thomas, M.A. (son), Mr. A. L. L. Thomas (son), and Mrs. W. Bull, Mrs. T. C. Turley (churchwardens), Dr. A. H. Holgood, D.S.O., Mr. W. C. Bay, Mr. Cadwallader, Mr. E. Tobitt, Mr. Devey, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Devey, Mr. and Mrs. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. M. Tuddenham, Miss A. Brown, Mr. H. Morrison, Mrs. Cave, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Bull, Mrs. Gales, Mrs. A. Smith, Miss W. Bull, Miss F. Bull, Mrs. and Miss Hobbes (Stony Stratford), Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. H. Kins, Mrs. Brassey, Miss Miles, Mr. Gilbert, Mrs. Lamb, Mrs. Beckett, Mrs. Atkinson, Mrs. Roy, Miss M. Bowdler, Miss N. Bramley, Miss A. Ibell, and others.

Hilgase Cemetery was reached exactly at 3 o'clock, and there had assembled a number of friends and relatives, among whom were Dr. and Mrs. Colley, Weymouth (son-in-law and daughter), the Rev. J. D. Thomas, B.A., Vicar of Ditton Priory, near Bridgworth, and the Rev. D. O. Thomas, M.A., Rector of Whitechurch, near Ross-on-Wye (brother of the deceased lady), Mr. T. Trevor Thomas, London (nephew), and Lady Barrat (a personal friend). Canon Thomas performed the burial service, and the coffin was laid to rest in the family grave.

Beautiful floral tributes were from: the Rev. D. J. Thomas and family; Dr. and Mrs. Colley; Miss Gladys Thomas; Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Turley; Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Thomas (Chester); the Rev. and Mrs. O. A. Thomas (Fording); Dr. and Mrs. H. O. East (Manchester); Mr. E. Devey (Hilgase); Mrs. W. Bull; Miss F. Bull; Mrs. and Miss Hobbes; Miss Miles; Mr. Gilbert; Mrs. Lamb; Mrs. Beckett; Mrs. Atkinson; Mrs. Roy; Miss M. Bowdler; Miss N. Bramley; Miss A. Ibell; and others.

(Continued in next column.)

gent class of the assistant curate's fund that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I surrender £52 per annum from the Living (interest on Field A. Trust) for this purpose; and, in addition, I hope, with the support of the Bishop of Oxford, to secure a grant of £25 per annum for the same object from the Additional Curates' Society next year. Possibly some will be scandalized at the suggestion, but I venture to think that the majority of our church people will agree that a living was the example of my predecessor (I believe) I