VIENNA, AUGUST 16.

IT is now asserted, that at Braunau the Preliminaries of Peace were figned, or according to some, the ratification of the Preliminaries exchanged. Dure set out immediately for Paris, so that there is no longer a doubt of a Peace between present and Austria. The English Ambelliour with an account of what has passifed.

ratified to the Treaty of Peace with France.

The Queen of Naples, in whose train is a sifier of Talleyrand, the French Minister of Foreign Affairs, travelled with 6 much expedition that the came from Triest os Schonbrunnin sour days.
To-day Admiral Nelson, accompanied by Lady Hamilton, arrived here.

Augsburgh, daugh 16. Yesterday the General in Chest, Moreau, had a long conference with all the Generals here, after which he dined with them, and to-day, at sive in the morning, set out for Strasburg, electred by a party of eavalury.

August 18. General Defolles yesterday made it no secret that Adjutant-General Duroc was carrying back to Paris the Preliminaries of Peace signed by the Emperor. The modifications which the Court of Vienna has suggested to be made in the propositions of the Chief Consult are of that kind that a detail.

August 18. During the absence of the Generals Moreau and Lecourbe, the third lieutenant General takes the command of the amy. Moreaus is expected back in a fortigist, and Eccourbe is gone to visit his wife at Colmar, the Austrian officer who, accompanied by a french officer, passifed through Augustury house the provisioning that fortures.
