PARIS JOURNALS to the 26th inflant inclusive, were this morning received in Town.

These Papers are filent respecting Jourdan, and they only state the retreat of Gen. Schreck Kehl, in which he was considerably annoyed by the Austrians. There is likewise an account of the attack of Kehl by the Austrians, the particulars of which were brought by the Hamburgh Mail of yesterday.

There is a letter from Buonaparte, dated from Casselli, September 16, giving an account of several partial engagements, in all of which the French are represented to have been fuccessful.—On the 16th he feems to have gained a more important and decisive victory at St. George's, in the vicinity of Montua; in consequence General Wurmfer is shut up in that place.

Buonaparte states, that in the above action he made 2000 Austrians prisoners, killed 2000, and took 25 pieces of cannon.

The India steet has arrived to far in perfect fastey. Sir Hyde Parker, with the steets for Libbon, the Mediterranean, &c., parted company with us off Cape Finisters the 15th, and we were off Madeira on the 25th, and we were off the Lidia steet. The former parts company to-morrow, and leaves only LO Jean with us, which ship goes with us on to India. We are in ourselves a formidable steet. We have every reason to imagine we have got into, or very near, the Trade Wind. It now blows N. E. and were in hopes of having a quick passege to the Cape.
