FOSTSCRIPT OF THE GAZETTE DE FRANCE, DATED 11 AT NORH.

It is long since Paris presented a spectacle as enchanting as the creming which has elapsed. The birth-day of our good Kixo has really been a holiday to his subjects. A vast illumination enlight-ened the Capital. White flasts, and transparent and ingenious allegories, decorated a great number of the houses, and one cry, that of Vine le liot, proceeded from every mouth. At the time we are pusting our paper to press, the explosions of Bre-works and salutes in honour of his MAJESTY are heard in every quarter of Paris.

FROM THE JAMAICA MAIL.

CURACO, MAY 26.—The arrivals this week being principally from the Spanish Main, we have but little foreign intelligence to communicate to our readers. General Montile arrived at Carraccas on the 11th instant, and proceeded to Valencia with a division of the cavalry which came out in the expedition, and about 500 infantry. General Karrits, the second in command, was to follow with another division, leaving two regiments of infantry in the capital. These troops, when joined to the army under General Carzado, it is said will form a corps of 18,00 men, which, howerer, is considered here as one exaggeration of their numbers. They are to unite in San Carlos, and from thence the whole will march upon Santa Fe.

The Spanish Government has taken up several British vessels that were in the ports of La Guyra and Puerto-Cablo, for the purpose of converting them into transports. CURACOA, MAY 26 .- The arrivals this week being
